Mary,
It's been great having you as a lab partner.
I want to be here next year.
So good luck in the year to come.
Yvonne
Briesthal

Mary,
To one of my great lab partners in chemistry who has broken almost as much as I have! Good luck on your final! Don't break anything else! Don't forget chemistry or Herman as a senior and good luck.
Enjoy summer vacation
P.S. I hope someday
you get to meet Simon
or ~~Har~~ Harjunkel!

Mary,
You're the BEST leader
I ever had. — you're the ONLY leader I ever had, but that doesn't make any difference. You're still great.
Good luck, forever + ever + ever...

 Good Luck Always,
 Nancy Scott

Mary,
 I can't say I've enjoyed you being in any of my classes,
 'cause you weren't in any of them. Anyway, at least you were here for lunch.
 Sue Goerger

Mary
 your a real

 We have to find out about Peggy, when she's expecting!! When you get your license
 we have to go places and then when I get mine, (if ever) I'll take you places. HA

I still remember the good old days of German with Karl. Heinz. Isn't it a coincidence that we meet again under the same leadership of Karl.
 It's just a shame I didn't have you

 Hello Mary!
 2 years in the same class well, this one was somewhat better than last year with Uncle Phil.
 But this year we had Big Alice and Sparacin mother-in-law? What will be next year? Next time you see Paul Simon be sure to say hello to him for me - he's great. Too bad good old Raber is leavin' it was a riot with him on Stage Crews. This year - but why don't you join - it will be lots of fun and everyone is happy 😊? I don't know
 But I hope to see you again next year for maybe even in the summ
 who knows?
 See ya
 Don Peily

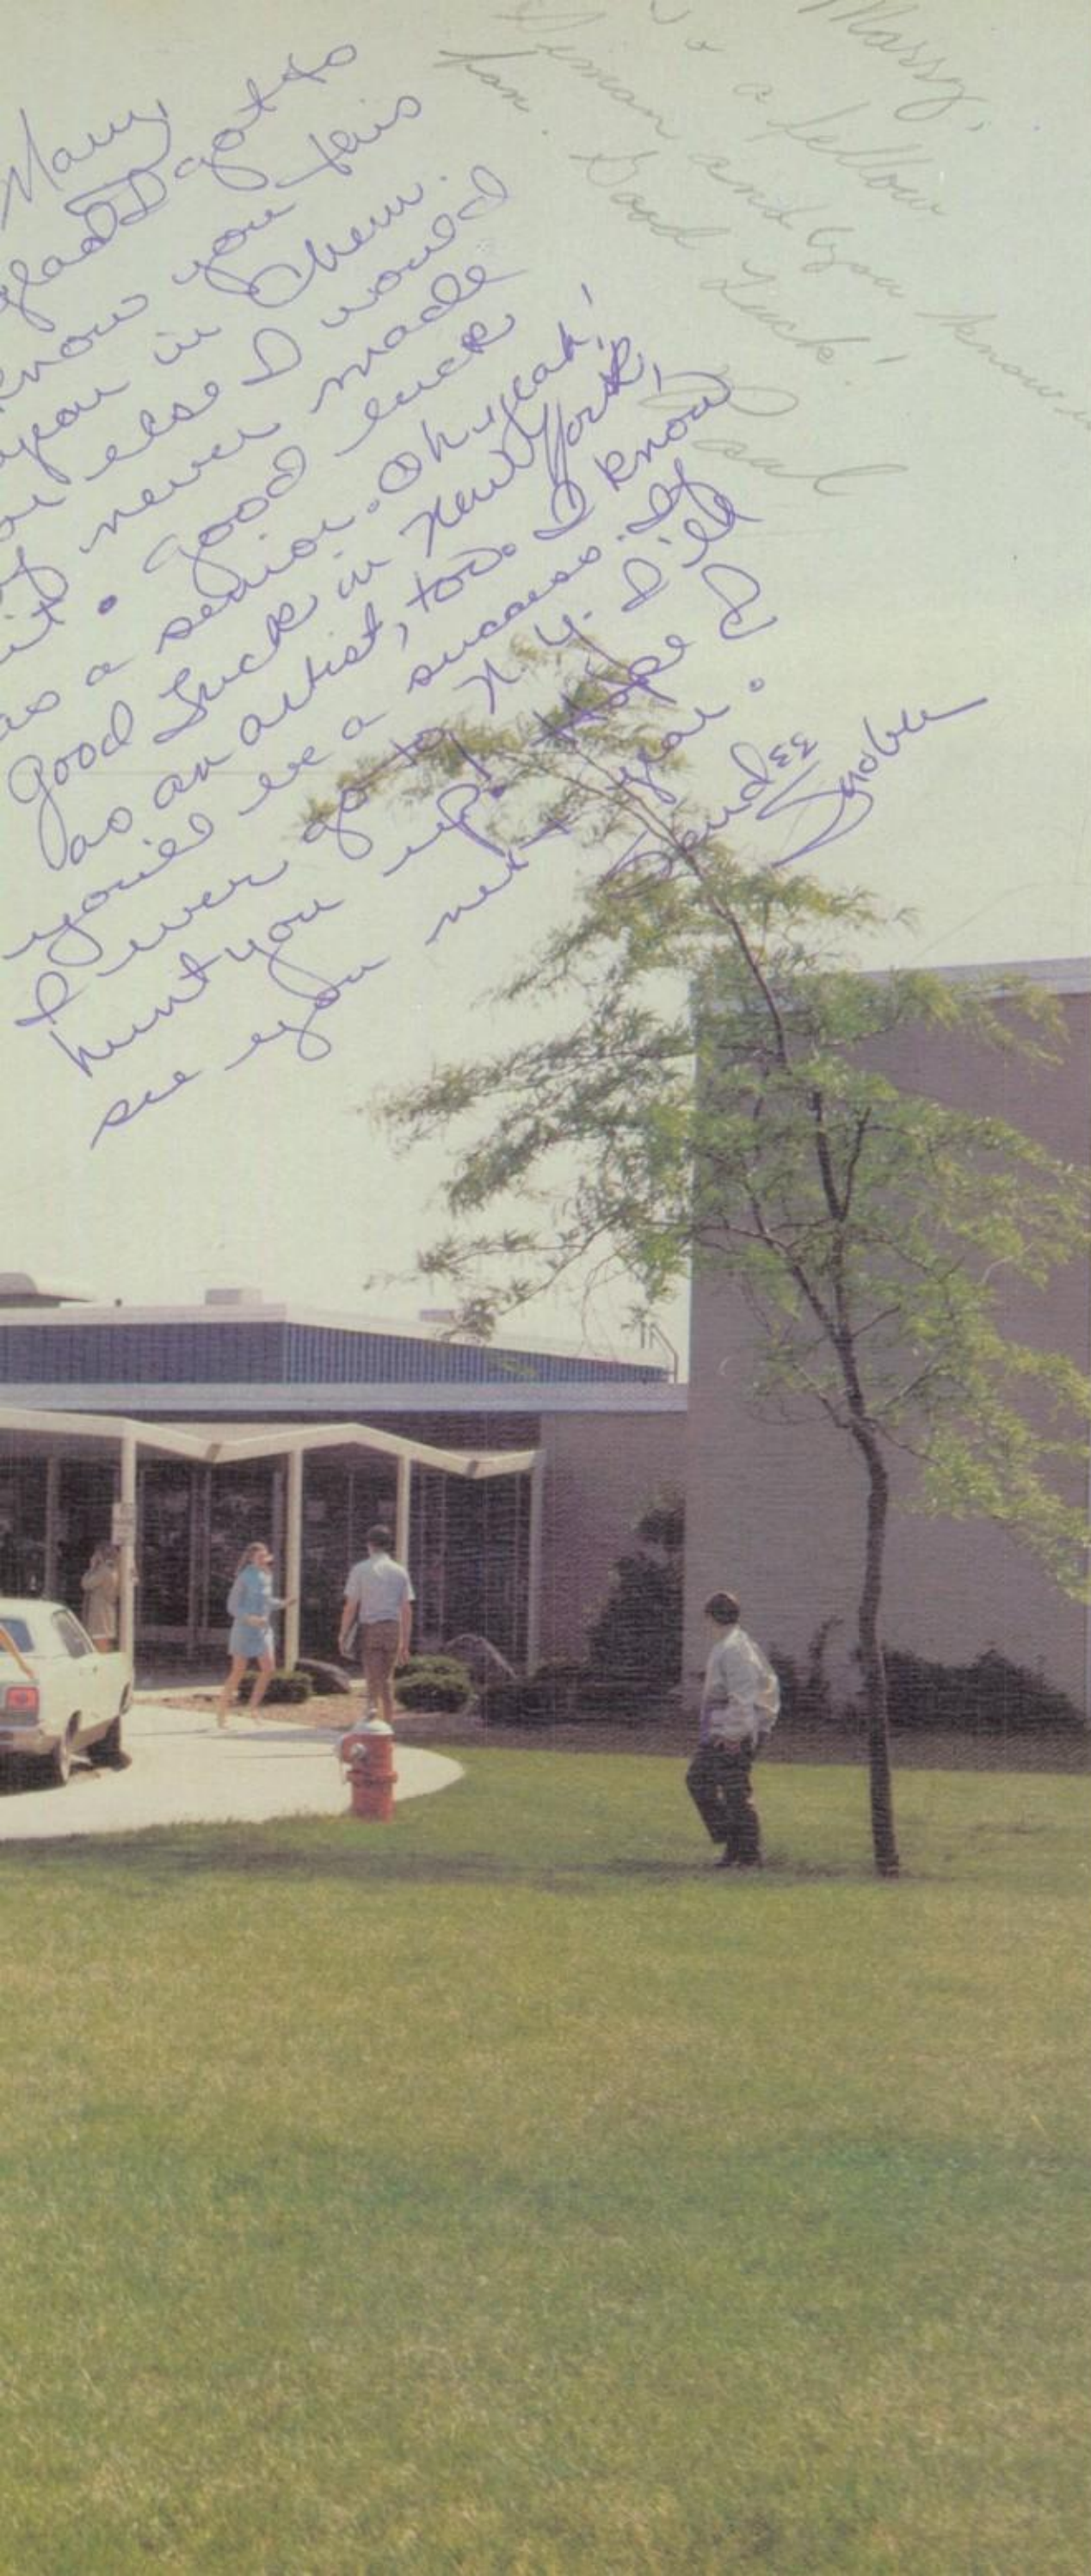

Mary,
 Well, we've come from art I,
 although long way from art I, I must say you're multi-talented - you can draw and drop test tubes with same agility and grace. I'd say hope to see you next year
 but what

I got to know you
in Chem.
I would never made a senior. Oh yes,
I was in New York,
as an artist, too. I know you're a success. I'll never go to N.Y. I'll hunt you up. Hope I see you next year.

seniors symbolize the grens' spirit of winning

Seniors have upheld the traditions set by preceding classes at Elk Grove High School. In their constant efforts to demonstrate their leadership, responsibility, and maturity, the seniors have developed traditions of their own.

The first combined efforts of the class of 1971 were made visible by a sock hop during freshman year. As freshmen, the seniors outnumbered each of the upper classes.

Seniors sponsored a turnabout in the fall and spring of their sophomore year. The funds from these endeavors helped to finance the Junior-Senior Prom, "A Time For Us."

Hard work and much devotion produced a prom that the juniors could be proud of. The theme from Romeo and Juliet created the atmosphere for a night of romance.

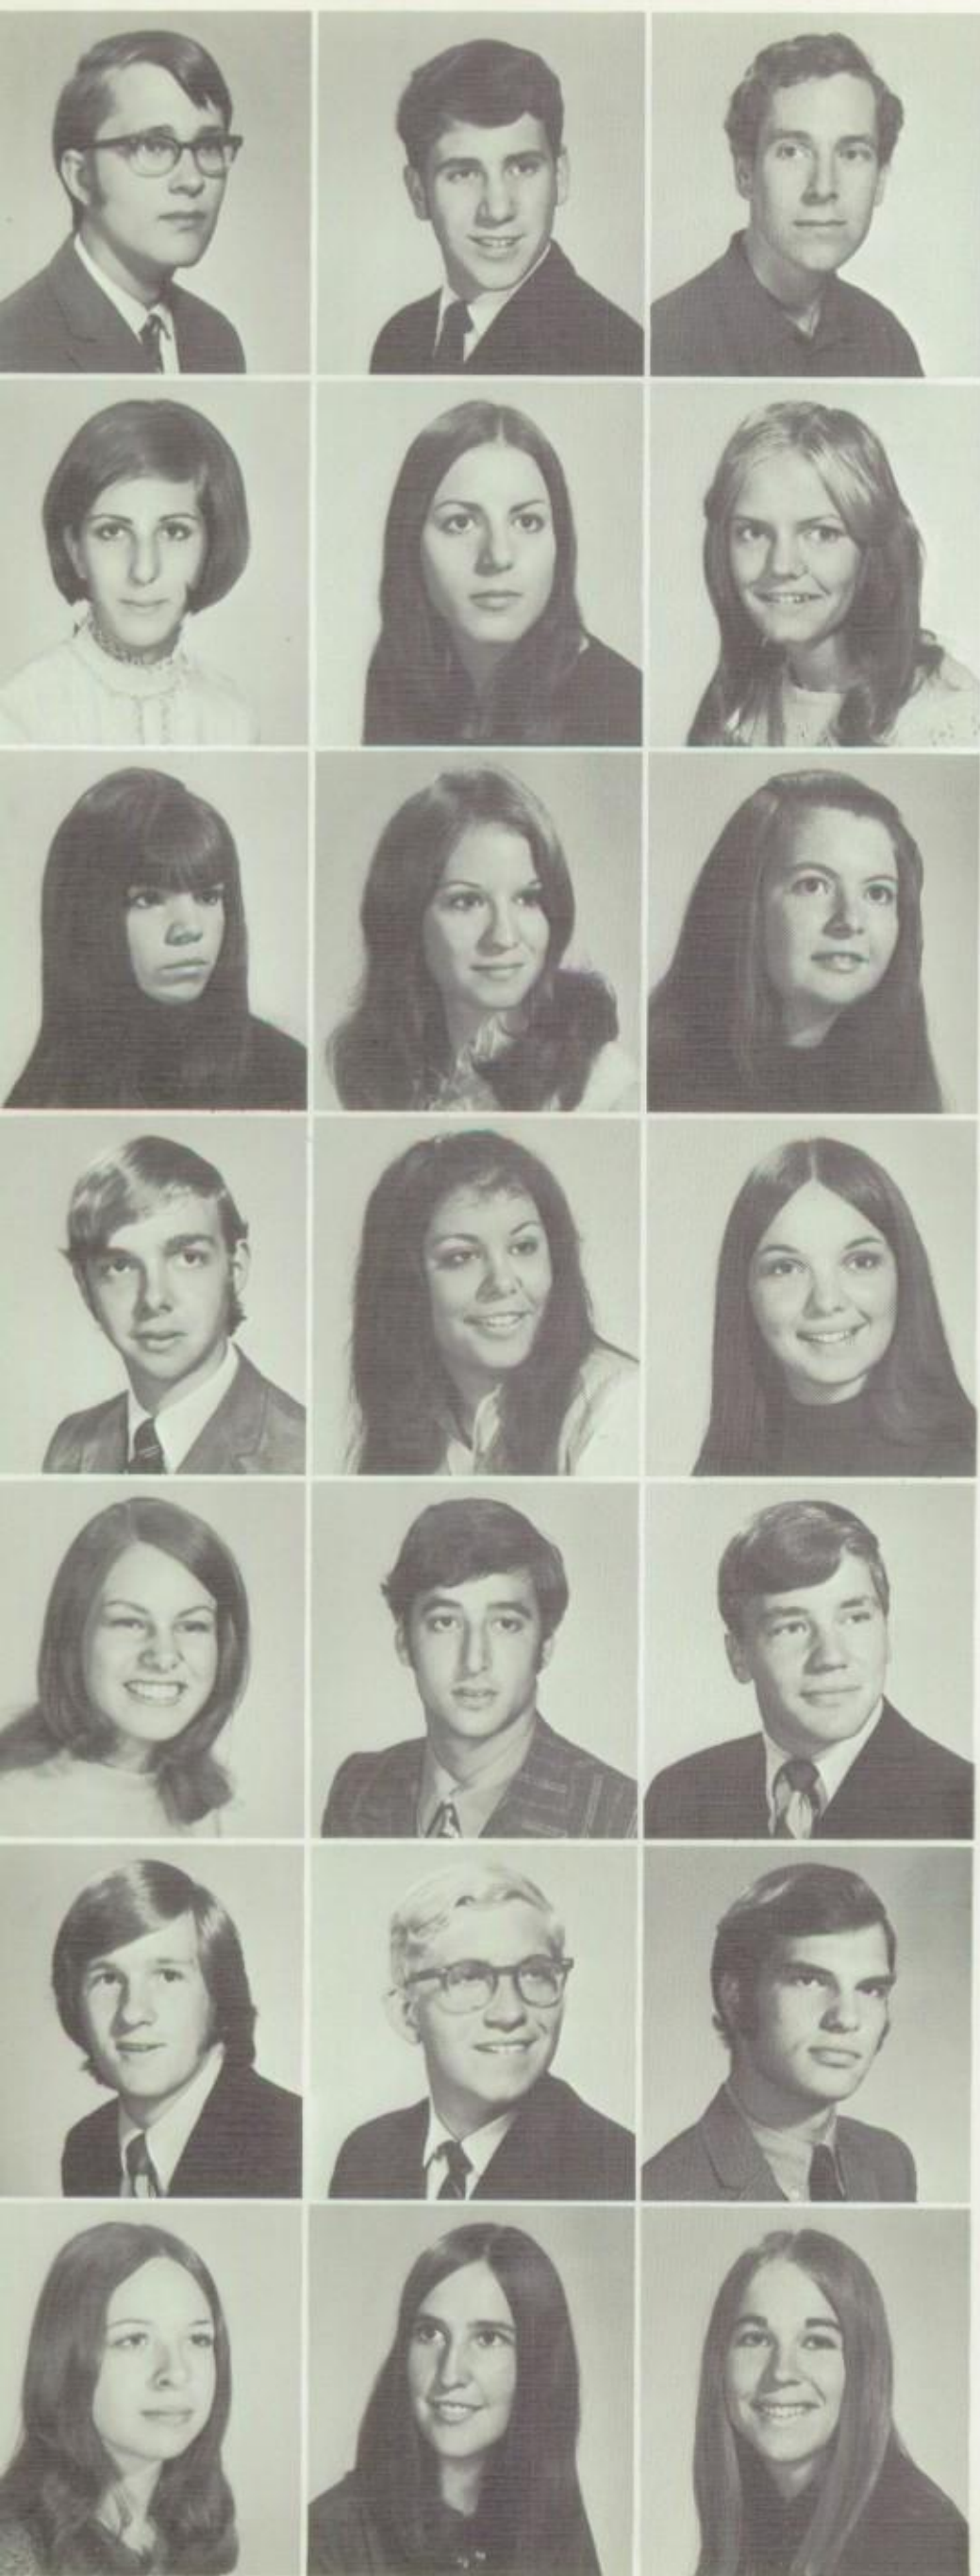

Senior year for the class of '71 was the year of their greatest achievement for seniors, brought hopes for the participations of Homecoming.

"White Lace and Promises," the 1971 Winter Ball, proved to be an enchanted evening for all who attended.

Anxiety and anticipation lingered in the minds of all seniors as Graduation Day approached. Graduation, the greatest achievement for all seniors, brought hopes for the future and memories of the past.

This year the Junior Class of 1972, led by President Mike Smith, Vice-President Laura Camodeca, Secretary Linn Austin, and Treasurer Maria Ciulla, have shown their spirit in many ways. Among their many activities, they sold "Big Green Machine" buttons during Homecoming, sponsored mixers, and sold concessions at football and basketball games.

Juniors began the school year by changing many traditions. For the first time in Elk Grove's history, for example, girls from the class of '72 beat the Senior girls in the Powder Puff Football Game.

On May 21, 1971, the Juniors again changed tradition by sponsoring Elk Grove's first dinner-dance Prom, called "Le Mirage D'Amour," which means "The Look of Love." The prom was a gift from the Juniors to the Seniors. It combined a delicious dinner at the Marriott Hotel with romantic music and dancing.

The success of this prom resulted from hard work which gave the class of '72 more money than was earned by any other Junior class in the district. Known as Elk Grove's spirit class, the group worked very hard to raise this large amount of money in the past three years. But because their prom was one to be remembered by all who attended, the Juniors felt that all their hard work became worthwhile.

During the 1970-71 school year the Sophomore class contributed much to the total spirit of Elk Grove High. This year the Sophomores were headed by President Michaelene Romano, Vice-President Jayme Nicholas, and Secretary-Treasurer Kim Miensen. These officers helped the Sophomores demonstrate their willingness to work for the school. During Homecoming week they sold and wore '73 spirit shirts. They decorated the Sophomore hall, made a float for the parade, and decorated a spirit car for the Homecoming parade. They also made spirit signs for pep assemblies.

Sophomores also sponsored many activities and fund-raising projects. They sponsored numerous mixers and sold concessions at many football and basketball games. They also sponsored a turnabout called, "I'll be there." The dance, featuring "The Monterey's," was considered a dance to remember by all who attended.

Sophomores have been working hard to make next year a good one. They have been raising money for their Junior-Senior prom, planning participation in student council, registering for new courses available to them as Juniors, and awaiting their future rank as school leaders along with the new activities that they will sponsor during their Junior year.

A SONNET FOR DEAD YOUTHS

I dreamed of them last night, I saw faces
All glowing and unperturbed by cold distress;
As in the past, in glad tones, remorseless,
I heard their sweet voices and felt their grace,
Unfettered, not as in the joyless human race;
They brought renewed joy to my emptiness;
My cruel earth donned beauty like a dress,
And thus my world was an enchanted place.
Then at once I was outside an iron gate,
No longer hearing their unrecorded words;
Their hopes and their life plans still unsaid,
I wondered when the three might articulate
Their dreams. Never! They are murdered song birds.
So I awoke and knew that they were dead.

D. M. Fyfe Nov. 30, 1970

Elk Grove Officers Linda Latone, Carol Tvrdy, and Randy Kornacki discuss new plans for the school year.

divided freshman class learns to work together

Rolling Meadows Officers Lynn Flugardt, Jackie Fahn, Linda Rose, and Kim Kaczor plan new activities for the year.

Freshmen this year consisted not only of Elk Grove students, but also students of Rolling Meadows. Elk Grove Freshman offices were held by Carol Tvrdy, President; Randy Kornacki, Vice-President; and Linda Latone, Secretary-Treasurer.

Many freshmen helped with their first Homecoming parade. To raise funds for their other class activities, they sold candy at the concession stand during a basketball game.

While waiting for their new school to be built, Rolling Meadows students attended their first year at Elk Grove.

Their elected officers were President Jackie Fahn, Vice-President Lynn Flugardt, Secretary Linda Rose, and Treasurer Kim Kaczor.

During Homecoming they put up decorations in their hall. They ran the concession stand during a game on February 12. On May 1, Rolling Meadows students sponsored a dance. To raise money they sold freshman buttons and ran a bake sale.

The Freshmen, during their first few weeks, probably got lost and encountered many problems. But now they seem to have solved their problems and have become acquainted with the school and their role in its workings.

Next year, Rolling Meadows students will have to find their way around again at their new school. Hopefully, they enjoyed their first year here at Elk Grove. They can use the things they learned to start new traditions at Rolling Meadows High School while Elk Grove Freshmen carry on for the green and gold.

administrative staff works toward closing the gap

Mr. Robert Haskell, Principal

The administrative staff at Elk Grove took on the job of bridging the gap between students and teachers. For example, working with Student Council, the administrative staff established a smoking area for students outside on the campus.

Mr. Haskell, principal, took time out of his busy schedule to teach a history course. Everyone's job was made a little easier with guest speakers and student forums where students expressed their opinions about bettering the school and making it a better place to attend. The success of the year remains in the minds of the administrators, who worked hard to make it memorable.

secretaries assist both students and faculty at eg

The office secretaries and those working for the division heads have completely different jobs. Secretaries in the front office work for the administration as well as for the students. They type and take messages and make out report cards for the students. They are in charge of mailroom, switchboard, and computer room. They prepare tickets for all the school's extra-curricular events and take attendance. These secretaries work full-time, even during the summer months.

The division-head secretaries, besides working for the division heads, keep busy making up tests, ordering books, stamping extra reading books for the various departments, and mimeographing all other materials teachers may need. The division heads depend upon their secretaries to make and answer calls, coordinate teacher programs, and keep the divisions running. These women work only when school is in session. The jobs of the two groups are different, but equally necessary and important.

janitors and supervisors help keep eg in shape

Throughout the school year, Elk Grove needed many repairs. The men who were responsible for keeping the school in good shape were the janitors. Among their responsibilities were cleaning the cafeteria, fixing faulty heating systems, and cleaning up after pep rallies. All in all, they kept EG in good running order.

Supervisors: Front Row: Mrs. Fran Hansen, Mr. Bill Sharp, Mrs. Lorraine Laing; Back Row: Mrs. Colleen Heimberger

Elk Grove's administration added two new instructional assistants to the staff of study hall supervisors. Study hall supervisors were put in charge of students coming in and out of study halls while the two new assistants were assigned to the gym locker rooms to protect against petty thievery and drug use.

cafeteria help prepares food for eg's grenadiers

Mrs. Margaret Archbold and Mrs. Gertrude Wille clean up the kitchen after a typical day of serving faculty and students.

This year the cafeteria help at Elk Grove was kept busy serving almost 500 students and teachers per half-hour lunch. A total of 2095-2775 students, teachers, and administrators were served daily. The average daily count was 2467. Students and teachers were served by twenty-one employees, who worked more than a combined total of 110 hours per day.

To make their jobs easier, the cafeteria help planned menus on a five-week cycle throughout the school year so as to give teachers and students a wider variety of food choice. These menus were based on both student and teacher preferences. Data for these preferences were based on the number of meals bought on a given day. The menu was readjusted every five weeks so that seasonal foods could be used and new foods tried.

The cafeteria help had a small problem in the beginning of the year when some state aid was withdrawn and the price of milk had to be raised to meet the deficit caused by the withdrawal. Because many complained about the price rise, the administration decreased the price, to the benefit of those who used 1280 cartons of milk daily.

Mary,

It was a lot of fun being in the same English class with you 1st semester. (It was really a weird class with Mr.

a lot of fun. We really should see each other over the summer since we live down the street from each other. I hope that this

Summer

we will be able to get together. I've known you for a long time and you're really a great kid (even if don't ever change.

Good luck always.

Members of the Homecoming Court are honored during Coronation.

Homecoming was a special time of the year for all students at Elk Grove. Everyone was tense and excited during Spirit Week. Students flaunted buttons, grubby jeans, and sweatshirts. They worked hard on floats to represent different clubs and organizations. Then everything was ready for the beautiful setting of the coronation.

Grace Gahalla, chosen as the 1970 Homecoming Queen of Elk Grove, was escorted by Grenadier Luke Wolanski. The coronation took place on October 16 in the beautifully decorated school gymnasium. Students waited with anticipation in the darkened gym for the announcement of the queen, who represents the sweetheart of Elk Grove. Other members of the court included Maureen Dyrsch, escorted by Neil Noga; Karen O'Leary, escorted by Jim Ottinger; Kathy Severns, escorted by Charles Hadley; and Diane Stefanos, escorted by Orlando Fernandez. Dan Martin had the honor of escorting the 1969 Queen, Cathy Ellery.

After the coronation, the Homecoming Parade began at 2:00 P.M. Colorful floats carrying different club members all participated in this festive event. The success of this parade was the result of cooperation of both students and faculty at Elk Grove High School.

elk grove has a victorious homecoming

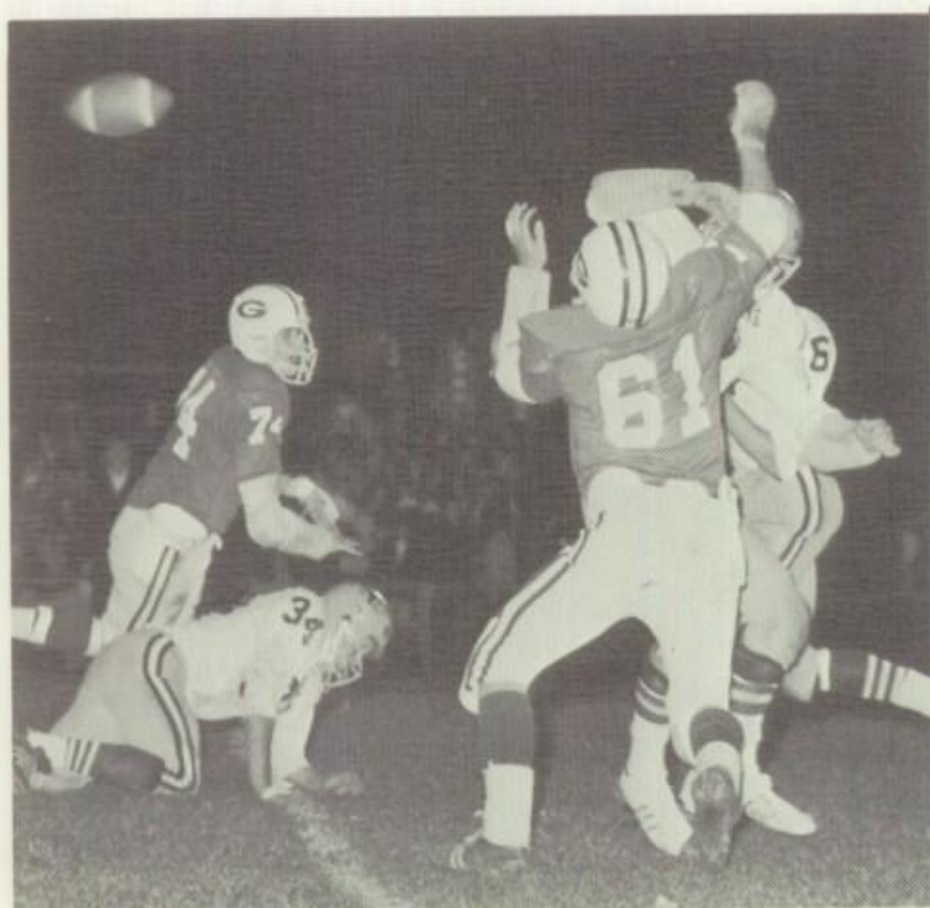

On October 16, Grenadiers won their first Homecoming game when Elk Grove played the Forest View Falcons and beat them with a score of 26-14. Throngs of students crowded the bleachers to cheer the Grens on to the Homecoming victory, the first in EGHS history.

From the very beginning of the game until half-time, Elk Grove's defense held strong against the Falcons. The score was 16-0. Junior Frank Tauscher scored first by collecting quarterback Neal Noga's 41-yard pass.

In the second half of the game, Senior Dave Hilderbrand also scored on a 3-yard pass from quarterback Noga. Points were also tallied with a safety, an 18-yard field goal by Sophomore Gary Adams. The final touchdown was scored by Tauscher on a 9-yard run. By this team participation and student spirit, EGHS proved ability and loyalty as it proved its mettle against its rival Falcons.

the spirit of victory lingers through la fete

The traditional La Fete dance was held on October 17 at 8:00 P.M. The dance completed all the festive Homecoming activities and again, as always, was a huge success. To set the mood of the dance, hard-working Pep Club members decorated the gym beautifully with dim lights and green and white streamers. These streamers accented arches through which the Queen and her court entered. Then the 1969 Queen, Cathy Ellery, escorted by Dan Martin, joined the new 1970 Queen Grace Gahalla and her escort, Luke Wolanski, in dancing the Queen's dance. Other couples joined in to dance to music provided by the "Velvet Glove" for the rest of the evening. Refreshments were then ready in the balcony.

Along with the students of Elk Grove, many alumni returned to share memories of high school days. Homecoming once again reunited past and present members.

Upon entering the prom, couples vote for queen and king and receive their bids.

Elk Grove High School's fourth annual prom, "A Time for Us" was held on Friday, May 22, 1970, from nine to midnight at Chevy Chase Country Club. Upon entering the prom, the couples voted for the King and Queen. After voting, each couple received its bid.

The evening was spent dancing to the music of the Tony Mikols Quintet, chatting with friends, or making special wishes in the wishing well.

Honored guests at the Prom included Mr. and Mrs. Haskell, Mr. and Mrs. Farris, Mr. and Mrs. Fyfe, and Mr. and Mrs. Aldrich.

The excitement of the evening reached its peak when Jim Camphouse and Terry Morris were crowned King and Queen. Members of their 1970 Prom Court were Jimmy Jones, Dennis Rambo, Gene Pinder, John Flesch, Maribeth Johnston, Peggy Olson, Kathy Serges, and Wendy Berns. The Sophomore pages were Sue Keegan, Dennis Fisher, Chuck Carroll, and Lisa Cain. Following coronation was the Queen's dance, executed to the tune "A Time for Us."

The Junior Class dedicated the Prom, "A Time for Us," to the graduating class of 1970.

Despite the heat, graduates are able to enjoy the solemn ceremony.

The commencement of Elk Grove High School's first four-year students took place on Thursday, June 11, 1970, in the gymnasium at 8:00 p.m. The gym was filled to capacity as the class of 1970 made its final appearance as Grenadiers. Graduates marched in to the "Triumphal March" from Aida.

The ceremony began with the invocation by the Rev. Mr. Schuyler Butler, followed by selections by the Elk Grove High School Choir. Sister M. Ann Ida Gannon, President, Mundelein College, gave the address to the class. Mr. Robert Haskell, Principal, introduced the class of 1970. Mrs. Leah Cummins gave the response. Mr. Donald Fyfe, Assistant Principal, spoke on behalf of the faculty.

Mrs. Leah Cummins, Secretary, Board of Education, and Dr. Roderick McLennan, Assistant Superintendent, High School District 214, presented the diplomas to the 521 graduates. Honored students were valedictorians Sheilah Bernard and Linda Holste and salutatorian James Dean. The alumni of Elk Grove High School then exited to the recessional, "Pomp and Circumstance."

winter festival highlights january for grens

"White Lace and Promises" was the title of the Winter Festival in January. Queen Kathy Severns, escorted by Charles Hadley, reigned over her court, consisting of Senior attendant Gayle Jackson with her escort Dave Hilderbrand; Junior attendant Cindy DeMares with her escort Dave Chernack; Sophomore attendant Nancy Hess with her escort Tim Hurley; and Freshman attendant Mary Houldsworth with her escort Jim Abb. Kathy was the first queen to be crowned under the soft lights of a gazebo.

Senior class members used their ingenuity in making the school gymnasium a winter wonderland. Outside in the foyer was a book with the words of the song "White Lace and Promises" inscribed upon it. Gaily decorated evergreen trees lit the way for couples entering the gym.

Inside, couples were able to talk with friends and dates as they sat at tables decorated with red and white carnations. The dance lasted from 8:00 P.M. to 11:00 P.M.—a memorable three hours for all couples who attended. Johnny Marlow and his Orchestra provided the dance music for the couples. Alumni also returned to share this special evening with both dates and friends.

Tradition was broken, however, when charms were given to the girls instead of bids. This winter festival, as were all others in the past, was an exciting and enjoyable evening for everyone who attended.

junior proves to be a successful president

This was a revolutionary year for the Student Council at Elk Grove. For two months the Student Council found itself without a president when Vince Bono resigned. Then Vice-President Chuck Carroll was officially appointed as the Student Council President and the council later appointed Landy Fernandez as Vice-President.

Special Council activities included a school calendar, the organization of Homecoming week, the V-Show, a mixer, and a debate on the popular issue of lowering the flag to half mast while American soldiers are in Vietnam. However, the student body voted against lowering the flag.

The seventy members of National Honor Society were initiated last spring in a ceremony held in the Little Theater. During October each member added to the spirit of Homecoming by selling Elk Grove pennants. Another initiation that took place in the spring was the Quill and Scroll Banquet. Held at the Itasca Country Club, the thirty members were initiated in a candlelight ceremony. Both organizations had no regular meetings. Members of both groups received honorary pins.

a day in the life uses a multi-media approach

Elk Grove's Variety Show, A Day in the Life, followed characters Jack and Janet through one day and then throughout their lives. The show ranged from birth to childhood, through middle age, and finally to death and rebirth. The show was staged on March 25, 26, and 27 in the Little Theater.

The V-Show employed a multi-media approach in order to communicate with the audience. Many dramatic sketches were featured, interspersed with acts. Slides and motion pictures provided a backdrop for the show. Faculty members joined the cast to play adult roles in the acts and perform as musical features.

Construction began early on a white geodesic dome, fourteen feet high, built in the center of the stage. Included as props were ramps leading to the dome from off stage.

Students wrote the show with help from Director Mr. Gerald David. The assistant director was Ann Tobin; business manager was Kathy Tansey, and the technical director was John Campbell.

The show was choreographed by Dee-Dee Stefanos and orchestrated by Bill Defotis.

A Day in the Life was quite a day in the lives of all who saw it.

National Forensics League is an honor organization for active members in Debate and Individual Events. Students were accepted into the NFL organization after they had earned twenty-five speaker points by participating in various speech or debate tournaments. Speaker points were determined by the difficulty and work involved.

Individual Events members participated in seven invitational tournaments and the District competition on February 13. Debate teams participated weekly in invitationals at novice, junior varsity, and varsity levels, winning neatly three-fourths of their debates.

The National Thespian organization is an honorary club which honors outstanding members and awarded the National Thespian trophy at its annual banquet at Itasca Country Club.

Persons who participated in drama productions received points toward joining the National Thespian organization. The points were awarded to any student who worked in a management position or on the cast or stage

Drama Department sponsored three plays this year. Come Blow Your Horn and Don't Drink the Water, fall and winter plays, were comedies; and Once Upon a Mattress, presented in the spring, was a musical. Mr. Raben directed the winter play, and Mr. Lebin directed the fall and spring plays.

An outstanding contemporary playwright is Neil Simon. His outstanding comedy, Come Blow Your Horn, was presented to an enthusiastic Elk Grove audience in November, 1970.

Set in the present in a bachelor apartment in New York's East 60's, the play deals with problems of post-adolescence and of young adulthood in a Jewish family. Both sons must cope with their overprotective mother and conservative father. Responsible for the play's success were Mr. Scott Lebin, Director; Mr. Richard Penley, Assistant Director; and Mr. Ronald Raben, Technical Director.

Individual students contributed artwork, furnishings, time, and talent in building of sets and a professional job of acting. The Student Assistant Director was Mary Kay Fisher and the Stage Manager Richard Rucinski. Directors, actors, and stage crew helped make the play successful.

three nights of comedy rock elk grove

Elk Grove's winter play, Don't Drink the Water, was another hilarious comedy included in the drama season of 1971. It was directed by Mr. Ronald Raben, assisted by Mr. Scott Lebin and Mr. Richard Penley. The three performances were on February 18, 19, and 20 in the Little Theatre. The play involved difficulties of escape for an American family imprisoned behind the Iron Curtain after being accused as spies while taking pictures of a Communist air base. Its comic enjoyment resulted from rapid-fire delivery of lines and the effect that unique props and scenery had on the audience. Many props were donated by friends and families of the cast.

Walter explains to Axel that they are just American tourists.

eghs faculty is defeated by the cubs

Students fought for victory over faculty on January 9 at 8:00 P.M. in an exciting game of basketball. Faculty won by the biggest margin ever, much to the disappointment of the student body. This Student-Faculty game, sponsored by Pep Club, was attended by many interested parents as well as students. Senior boys were identified by numbers and names written on their backs in red lipstick; faculty members were spotted by familiar faces.

Another big night at E. G. was when Chicago Cub Ron Santo and fellow teammates battled with Elk Grove's faculty in basketball on December 8 at 8:00 P.M. Defeat was overwhelming for EG: 92-63. This hard-fought contest provided much pleasure for the sell-out crowd. After the game, Cubs signed autographs and talked to students.

The famous Harlem Globetrotters demonstrated their talent and ability while playing against the New Jersey Nets in a hilarious basketball game. The game took place on October 28 in EG's gym at 8:00 P.M. The evening was well-filled for all those who attended. Both were professionals; the Globetrotters, however, demonstrated their unique combination of humor and form to win the game. Another group of talented basketball players visited Elk Grove November 13 at 8:00 P.M. They were Texas Cowgirls, who played against volunteers from Elk Grove's faculty and patrons. Much to the chagrin of the Grenadiers, the girls from Texas won. The Globetrotters game was a local activity which involved both community and school. The Cowgirls game, however, was sponsored by the Green and Gold Lights committee, a fund-raising organization to pay for our football lights.

Freshmen and those students joining choir for the first time made up the girls' and boys' choruses. These students had a special interest in singing together for large audiences and were willing to make the effort to perfect their singing ability.

The seventy-choir members' main objective was to learn to read music and to sing together in harmony.

Both choirs performed in the Music Department's main production, Choral Capers. Along with singing, their acts included dancing. They had various outside activities, also, such as the Christmas Concert at Randhurst, the Christmas assembly, and the Spring Choral Festival. A concert field trip was also included on their agenda.

concert choir steps out with a new look and style

Concert Choir changed traditional choir robes for an up-to-date look. The choir's "new look" consisted of patriotic outfits in red, white, and blue.

Along with the Girls' Glee Club, they participated in all E.G. concert recitals during the school year. They were also represented at the District 214 Music Festival held on February 9. Both of these groups showed outstanding musical quality in their performances.

girls' glee ensembles successfully end their second year

Choral Capers in October was the first performance of the year for Girls' Glee Ensemble I. Other performances were scheduled for the entire academic year that followed. One concert in particular was the Christmas program presented at Randhurst. They brought 1970 to a close by singing for the Elk Grove Junior Women's Club.

Their activities included a field trip to two District 59 grade schools, Ridge and Mark Hopkins, where they performed for the future singers. On March 13, Girls' Glee Ensembles I and II performed in a contest for solos and ensembles at Niles West High School. This was the first time Girls' Glee Ensemble II performed for the public.

marching band honors president nixon at rally

Members of the Marching Band perform at the Bear's game.

Elk Grove's Marching Band played for all the home games, whether football or basketball. Representative members also helped promote school spirit by playing as a Pep Band at the pep rallies.

Besides playing for special events at Elk Grove, they were also chosen to play for President Nixon when he spoke to the community at Prospect High School on Thursday, October 29. On Sunday, October 18, they played at the Chicago Bears-San Diego Chargers game. Our band presented a show called "A Salute to America's Famous Streets," complete with trolley cars, Hancock Buildings, and circles formed by the band itself.

On Saturday, November 14, they performed for a standing-ovation crowd at the second annual Band Jam-boree. On the same day, they played for the Arlington Heights Holiday Parade. Then, on Wednesday, December 21, they performed not only at the Chicago Bears-Detroit Lions game, but also left for out of state. Their out-of-state performance included the half-time of a game at the University of Dubuque in Dubuque, Iowa. In short, there were many special highlights of the Marching Band year which made Elk Grove proud.

Elk Grove's Jazz Choir "gets it all together" during the second act of this year's presentation of Choral Capers as they sing "Traces."

choral capers was totally student-produced

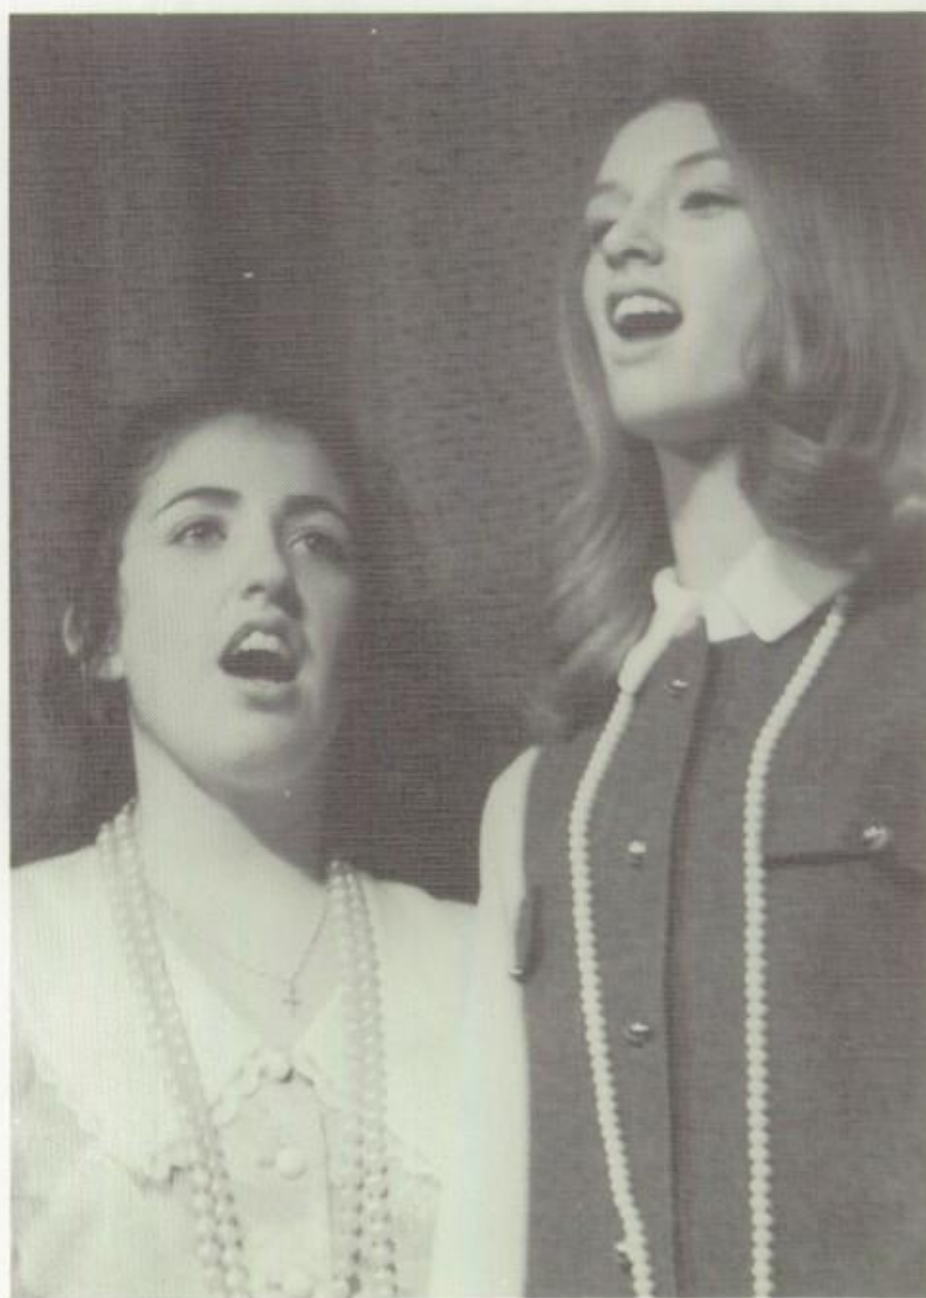

Choral Capers, presented on October 23 and 24 at 8:00 P.M. in the E.G.H.S. Little Theatre, was a tremendous success. This program featured Concert Choir, Girls' Glee Club, Boys' and Girls' Choruses, and all ensembles. Mr. Harry Swenson and Mr. Lendell King helped student directors and choreographers to present both student and faculty talent at Elk Grove. Many of the songs displayed the musical ability of individual students.

Highlight of the evening was a solo by Mr. Raymond Coleman, Dean of Students. His question was "What's the matter with kids today?" from the musical Bye Bye Birdie.

The whole production had three main divisions, based on well-known musicals. Freshman Chorus performed skits and songs from Sweet Charity, Girls' Glee Club became characters from Toyland Fantasy, and Concert Choir danced and sang to selections from Bye Bye Birdie. In each of these three acts, members of the particular groups directed, staged, and performed their own skits and songs. Accompanists from each of these singing groups were Gennie Eldridge, Karen Fabian, Debbie Kreisher, Elaine Parr, Diane Rassmussen, Karen Sealy, Bill Smedley, and Tina Stefanos.

Other students giving their services were Mary Campbell, who took over the direction of Concert Choir; and Camille Piraino, Kathy Tansey, Bill Johnson, and Doug Leland, who acted as choreographers for the entire show. Their dances were both visual and physical interpretations of the basic theme of the show.

Tina Vaccarello and Diane Meyners sing "Thoroughly Modern Millie."

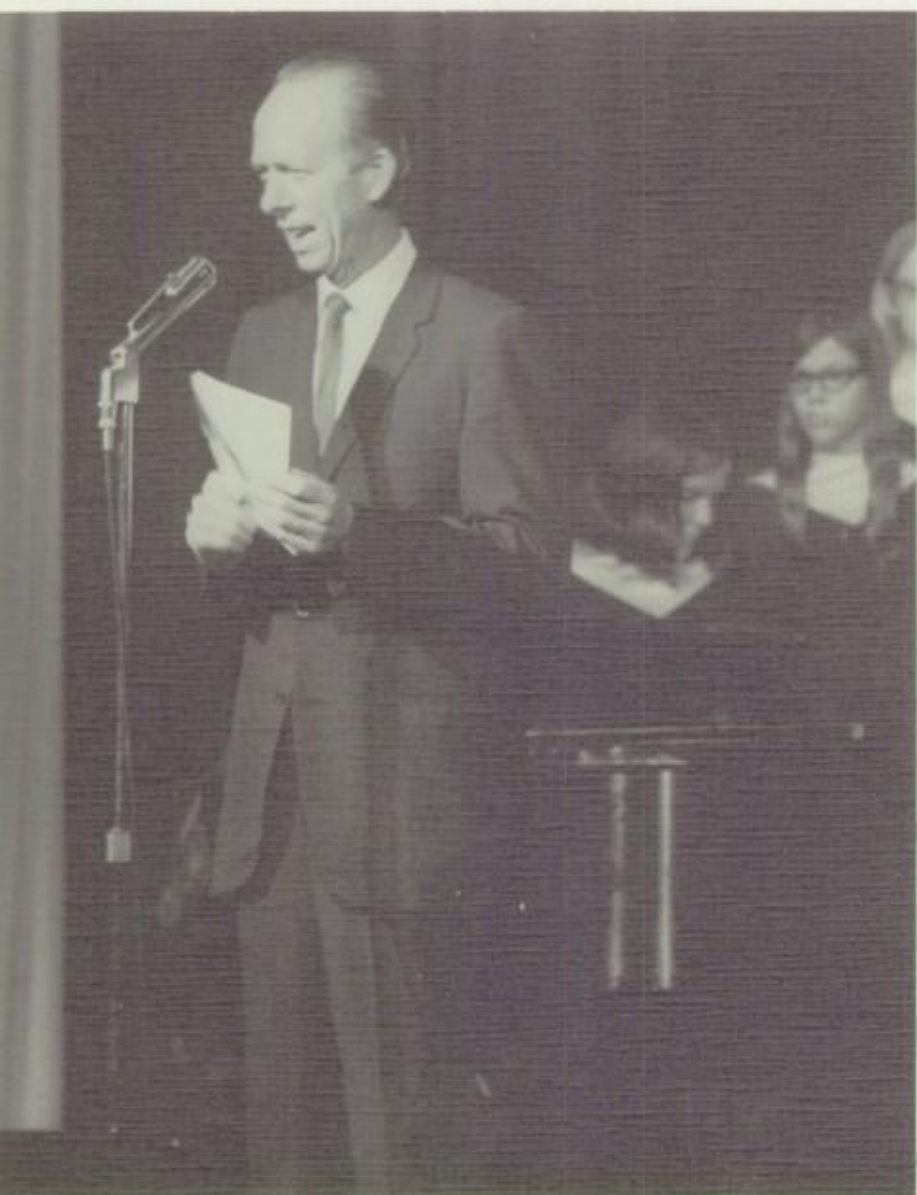

Frosh Wendy Wilson sheds her scarf in the scene "Big Spender."

Camille Piraino and Roberta Smith sing to the tune "My Love."

Mr. Swenson welcomes the audience to Choral Capers of 1971.

jazz band works toward their trip to europe

Jazz Band reached new heights in the year of 1970-71. They performed at many neighboring school dances and festivities, including an Elk Grove Lions meeting, an Elk Grove Jaycees meeting, and a Thanksgiving dance at Queen of the Rosary School. They also performed for the first time at a student dance on January 2 in the field-house of the high school.

Other performances in which they participated were the semi-annual tours of grammar schools in the neighboring communities of Des Plaines and Elk Grove. In April they presented their annual Spring Concert; and an open-air concert in August at the Grantwood School was part of their summer program.

During the entire school year, members of the Jazz Band sold raffle tickets for the drawing on a portable color television and an AM-FM radio. This raffle was a fund-raising project for their three-week summer tour of seven European countries, during which they will compete in the Anglo-International Festival of Jazz.

The newest development in the musical department was the formation of the Orchestra. This group, which played at all the band concerts, consisted of select junior high and high school students who were talented in the playing of stringed instruments, including violin, cello, bass, and viola. Both groups were tapped for the District-wide music festival held in February.

Elk Grove welcomes exchange student from Switzerland

Foreign Exchange is a special program offered at Elk Grove that enables students to change their daily school routine in the United States for a different way of life in a foreign country. Students who participated in this program had a choice to go to Europe, South America, or any of the Asian countries. The amount of time they wished to spend in these countries was optional. They could live in the country for six weeks, six months, or one full year.

Mrs. Garcia headed the student-exchange program this year while she hosted Markus Zimmerman, a resident of Switzerland. Markus joined the American way of life by taking a full load of courses at Elk Grove. During his American visit, he stayed with John Artemenko and his family in Des Plaines. Later this year John and another student, Rita Pritchard, studied in Germany. Thus Elk Grove reached out in international relationships.

Those students interested in Chess Club were encouraged to join if they were not already members. They met every Tuesday in Room 222 to play chess just for their own enjoyment and mental stimulation.

Because of their small size, Pan Language Club's activities were limited. Their most impressive event was the Pan Language Banquet held in May, at which students were grouped according to the language they studied. Each group of students decorated the table to represent the country of the language. All EG students were welcome to come and try different foreign dishes. After dinner, groups entertained in the tradition of their country.

Students interested in non-western cultures became acquainted with these cultures through study, discussion, and travel sponsored by the Anthropology Club. The highlight of the year was a field expedition to Yucatan, Mexico, to study the Maya Indians archaeologically and ethnologically. The Ecology Club worked toward trying to inform students and club members about problems of the environment. They then tried locally to solve these problems. One project tried writing different politicians to put pressure on them. The club also sponsored a drive to make deposits of glass and tin cans in local stores. By passing out pamphlets, they worked toward the passing of the November 3 bond issue to control pollution. individuals pursue unusual activity interests

The slopes of Wilmot were invaded on a weekly basis by the 150 members of Elk Grove's Ski Club. Every Wednesday, members would crowd the halls with skis and other equipment. The winter of 1970-71 offered excellent ski conditions that attracted more skiers than in any other year. Novices took lessons or learned from watching experienced skiers.

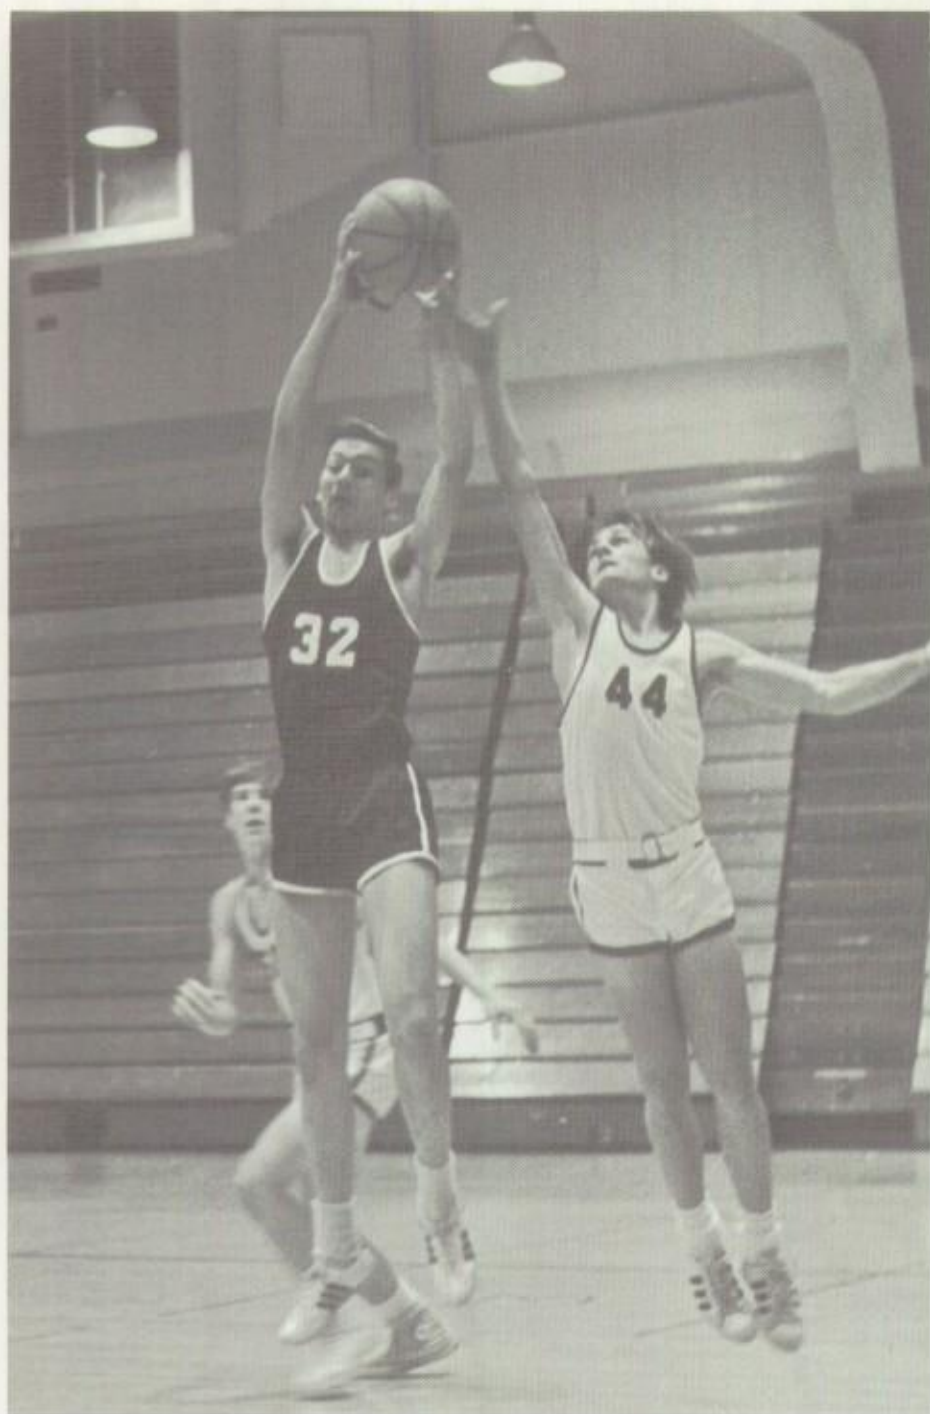

Ski Club also organized a racing team that competed against several other high schools in the state. Students comprising the racing team had been experienced skiers for many years. Approximately twelve races were scheduled for the winter months. Both Ski Club and Racing team were sponsored by Mrs. Laurie Rossi, herself a member of the National Ski Patrol.

Approximately fifty students participated in the Aquatics organization. The club members were students who enjoyed swimming and swimming competition. The main function of the club was timing at the swimming meets at Lively Junior High School for all the high-school team levels.

Students hit the trails when the Equestrian Club sponsored after-school riding trips to various stables in the high-school area. Beginners learned to ride English style after taking a series of lessons organized by the club. The Equestrian Club enabled students to ride on the average of every two weeks when the weather permitted.

Elk Grove High School was the transition between eighth grade and Rolling Meadows High School for many freshman students.

District officials granted Rolling Meadows students a separate athletic program during their short stay at E.G. The special activities included team sports, eight-member cheerleading squad, pep squad, and class board.

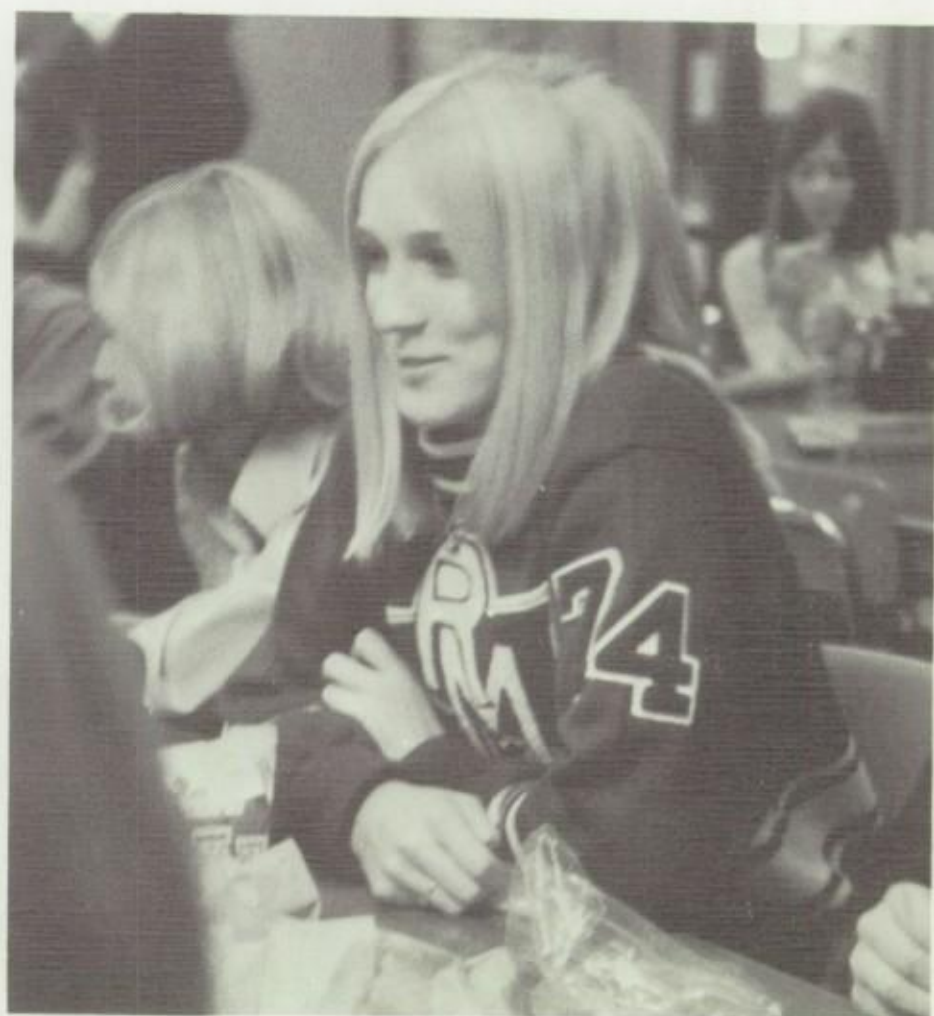

Mr. Robert A. Hoese, the principal of the new school, was quoted as saying: "My goal is not to make Rolling Meadows High School as good as the district schools, but to make it better."

Mr. Hoese will get his chance to prove his statement in the fall of 1971 when the Rolling Meadows school opens its freshly painted doors.

Forty Orchesis dancers, under the direction of Mrs. Lori Walker, presented Stop the Presses—I Want to Get On. The theme of the show was based on the news media and the daily newspaper in particular.

The opening number was dedicated to "Good Morning Suburbia," followed by the weather forecast to "Sunny." Other numbers were an editorial dedicated to the "Tribute to an Unknown Soldier," a farce on Ripley's "Believe It or Not," and a feature story on the moon landing. The travel section incorporated a trip through "Disneyland," "Viva La France," "Oulatunga Safari," "Spanish Love Song," and "Kolo." The restlessness evident in the stories about street gangs was depicted by "Dance in the Gym." The sports page was well depicted in "The Locker Room." Even the obituary column produced an authentic funeral dance from the bayou of New Orleans as evident in "Lily of the Valley." Comic strip characterizations in dance were "Little Orphan Annie," "Popeye," "The Lone Ranger," "Dick Tracy," and "Superman." The entertainment page found the adagio group of young men and women in their variation "If Should Ever Leave You."

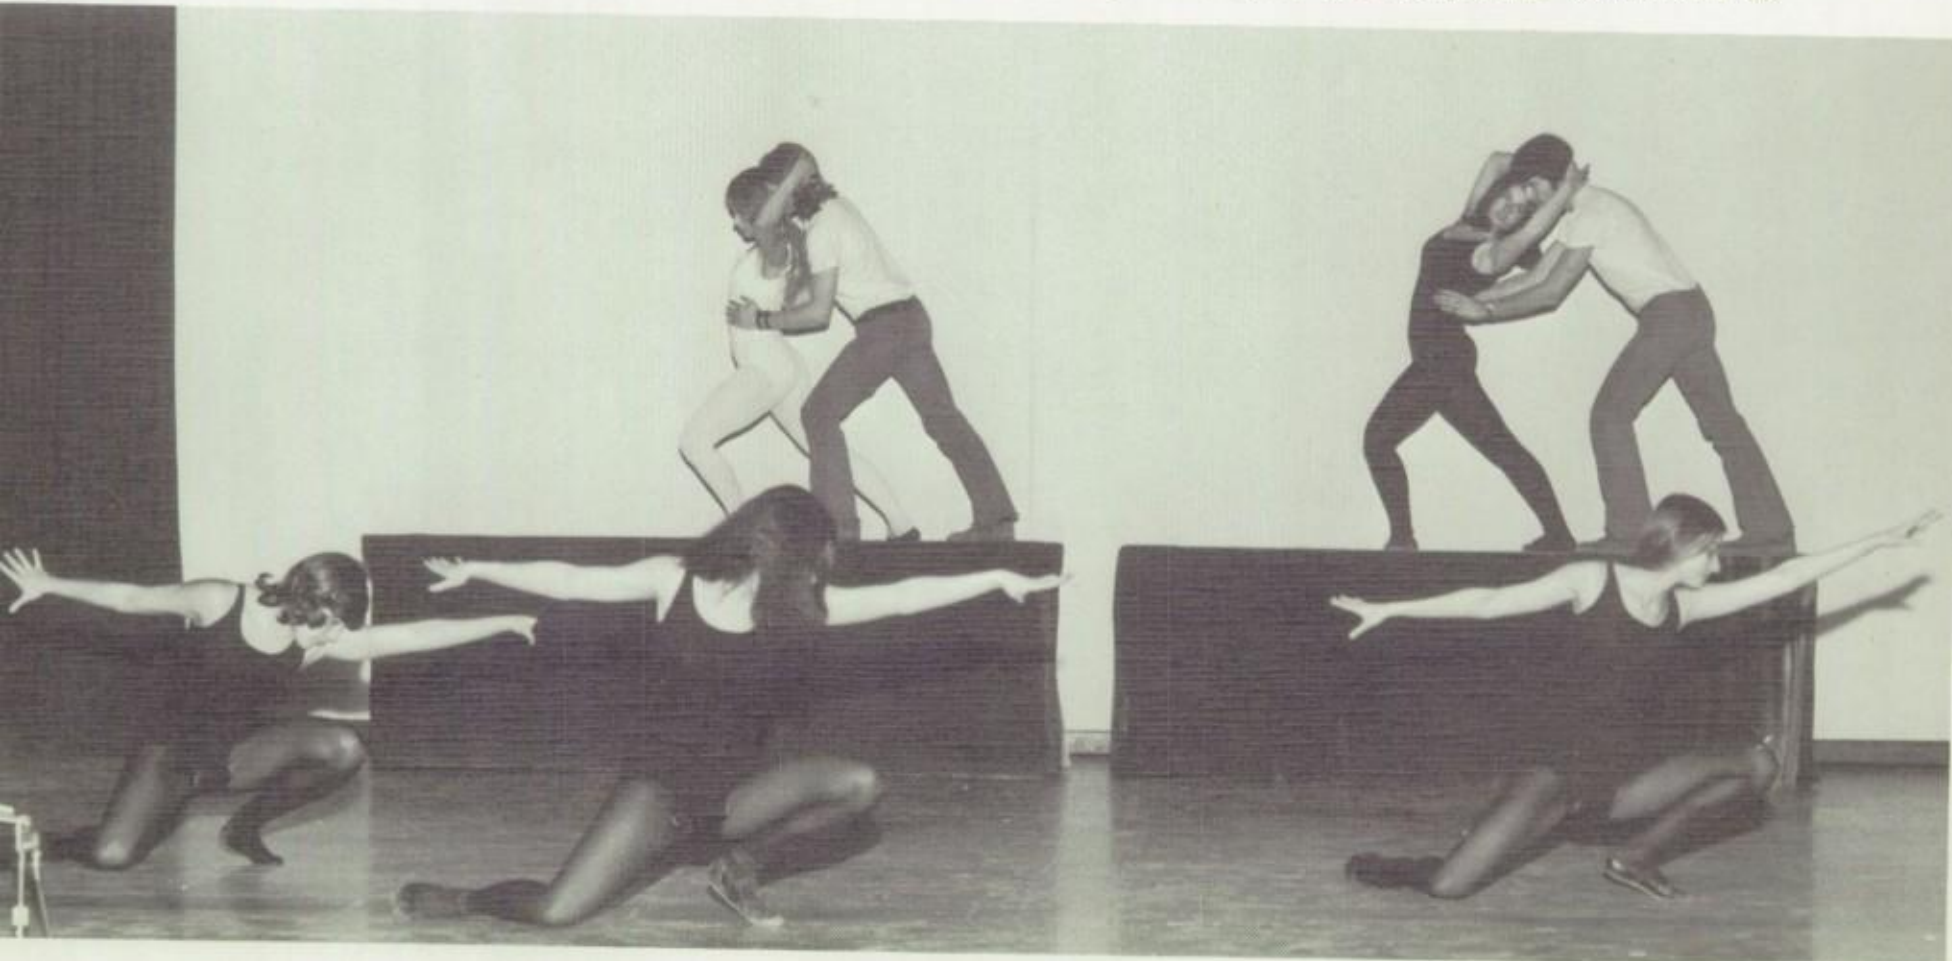

Orchesis performed at Lively Jr. High, Grove Jr. High, Palatine Home for the Aged, the Shriner's Hospital, and Dempster Jr. High. They also performed with the Elk Grove Community Chorus.

Through the group's effort, Elk Grove High school was the first school in this district to have a dance scholarship. This year's winner was Dawn Nitschneider.

elk grove's orchesis dancers show their talent

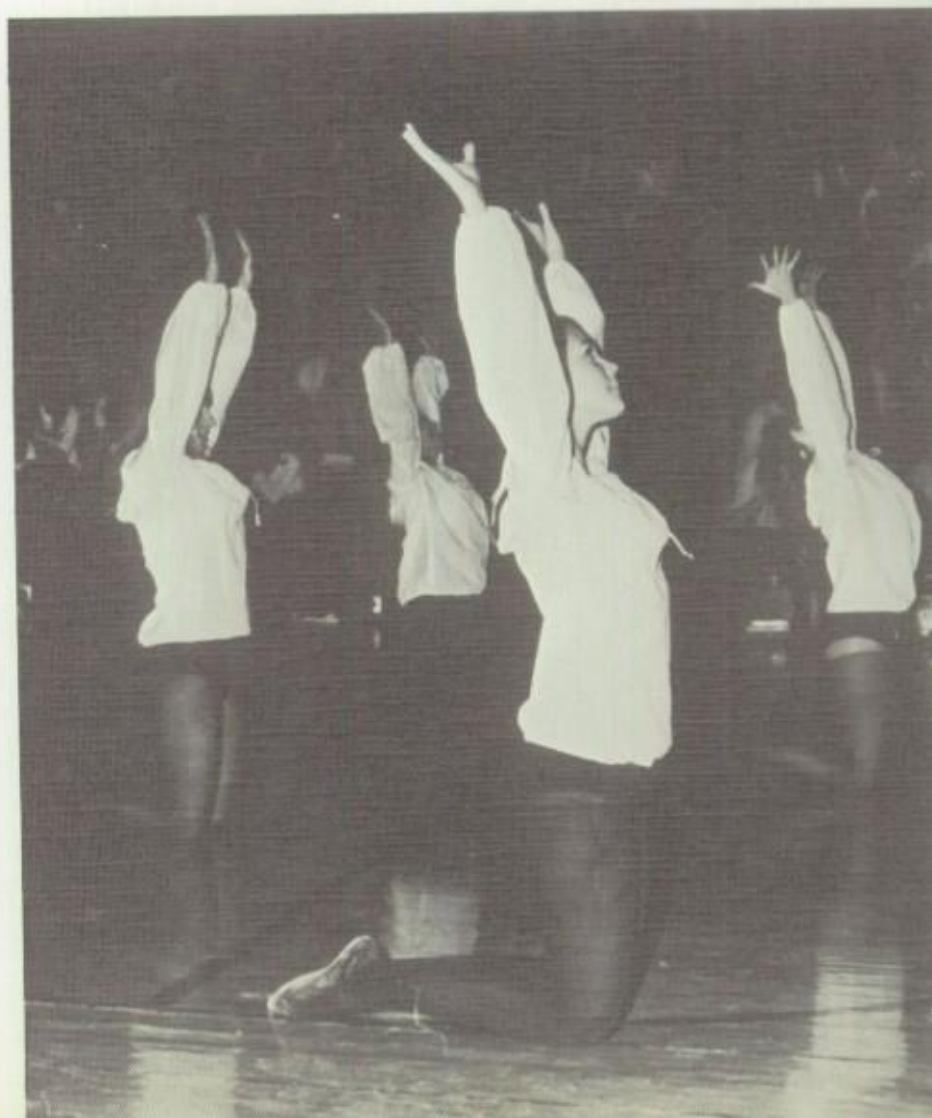

Elk Grove's Orchesis members proved their talent in the art of dance by the excellence of presentations they gave enthusiastic audiences. Again these girls performed at half-time for the special Homecoming game and parade. In addition, they danced at assemblies not only for Elk Grove, but also for neighboring schools. During the Christmas season, these girls danced to many traditional Christmas songs in a special assembly. These songs included "The Little Drummer Boy" and "We Three Kings of Orient Are." In the spring, the girls and their mothers were encouraged to attend the Mother-Daughter Banquet, a special event for Orchesis members.

Lettermen's Club tripled in size since last year. Although they organized rather late, they helped promote the Texas Cowgirl and Chicago Cubs basketball games. The fifty members sold concessions at various games and used the money for club needs, such as new monogrammed jackets. They also participated in service projects.

varsity beats falcons in first homecoming victory

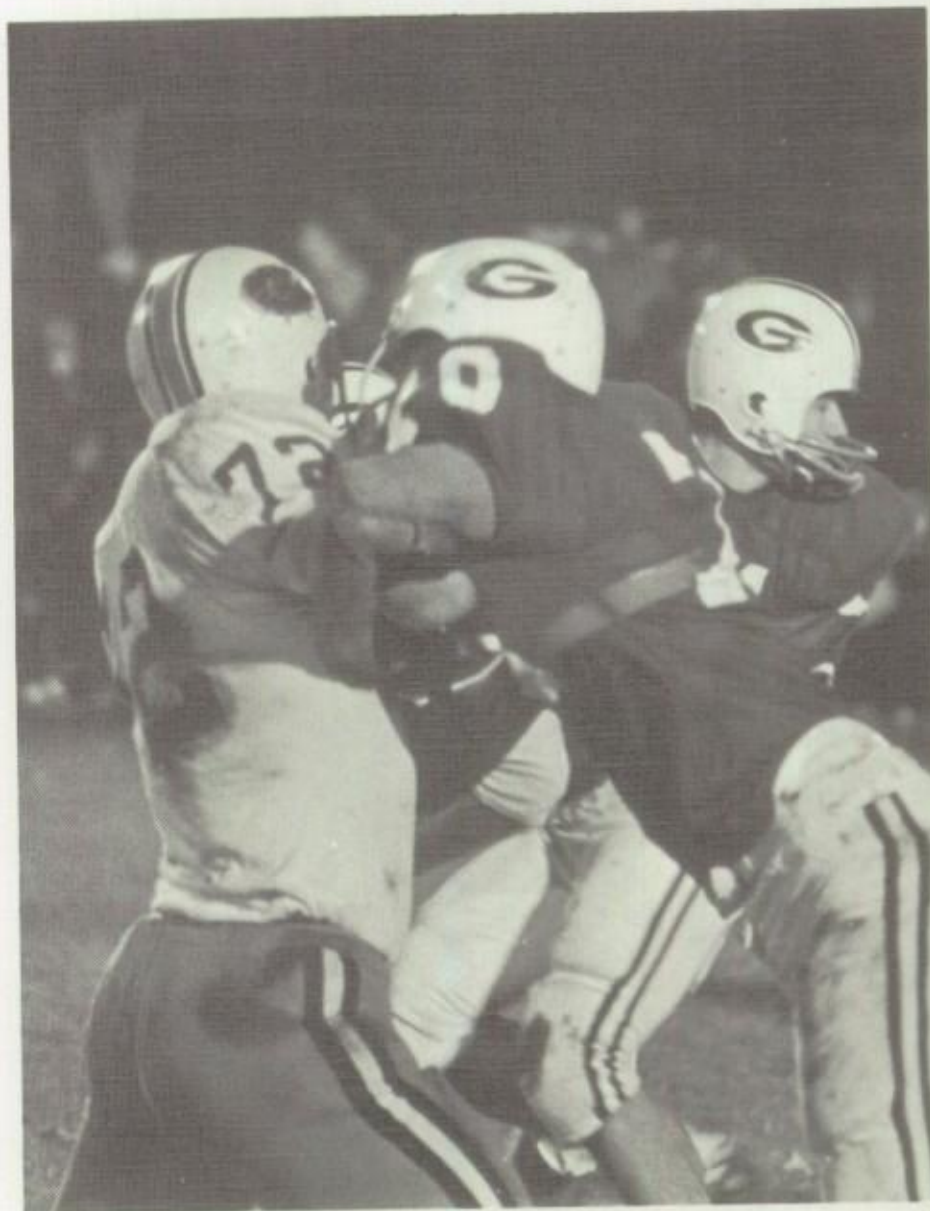

Elk Grove fans cheered the Varsity football team on to a Homecoming victory when the team beat Forest View, 26-14. This was the first time the Homecoming game was played under the lights and also the first time the Varsity team won a Homecoming game.

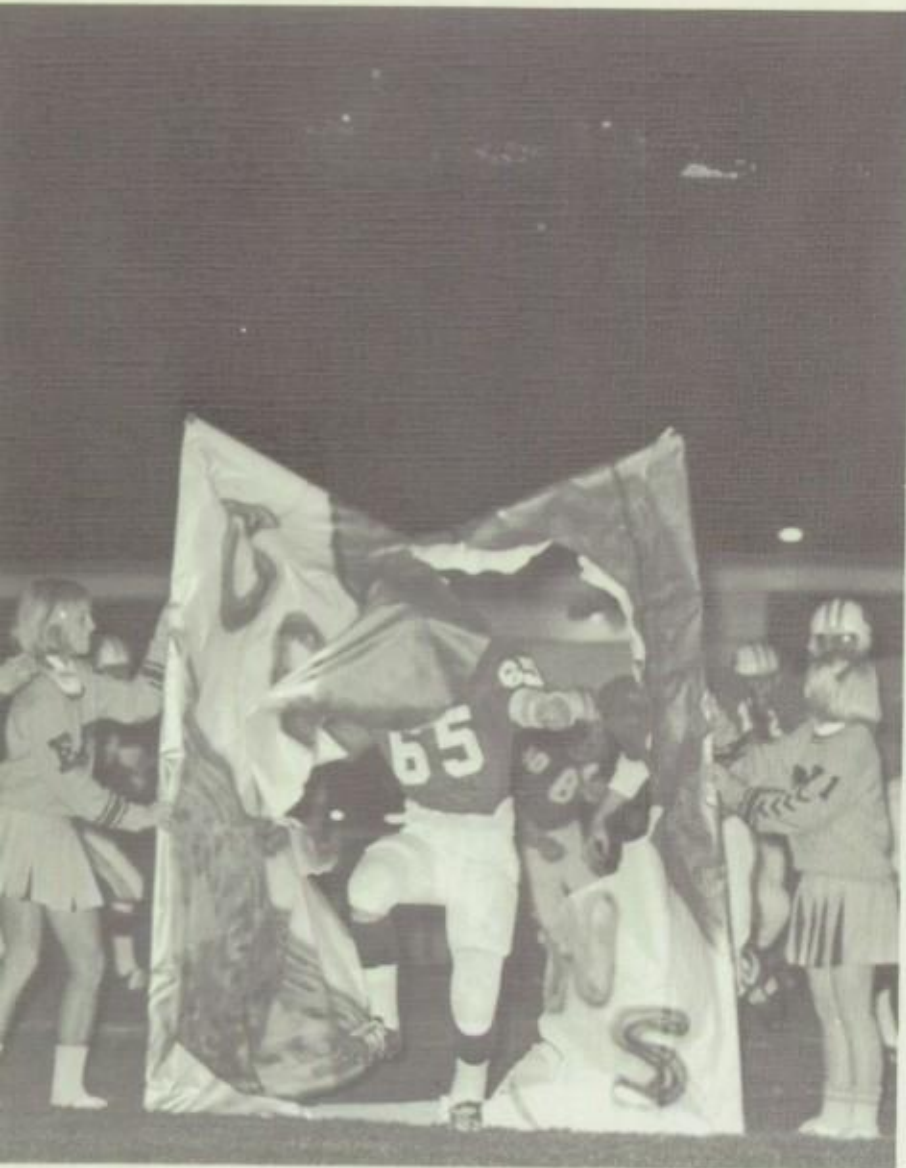

Varsity finished the year with a 3-5-0 record, after losing the first conference play-off game against Wheeling for third place in the South Division of the Mid-Suburban Conference. This was the first time the Mid-Suburban Conference was divided into two divisions, the North and the South.

Seniors Tom Warkentin and Steve Nitschneider were elected to the all-conference defensive team, Tom for playing the position of left end and Steve for playing linebacker. These two players also were given honorable mention from the all-Chicago area team.

Tuesday night, November 17 was the awards night for fall sports. Elected by their teammates were Fred Hauserman, right tackle, named Most Sportsmanlike Player; and Neil Noga, quarterback, chosen as the Most Valuable Player.

The 1970-'71 Junior Varsity football team, coached by Mr. Richard Bader and Mr. Bill Parmentier, ended the football season with a record of three wins, three losses, and one tied game.

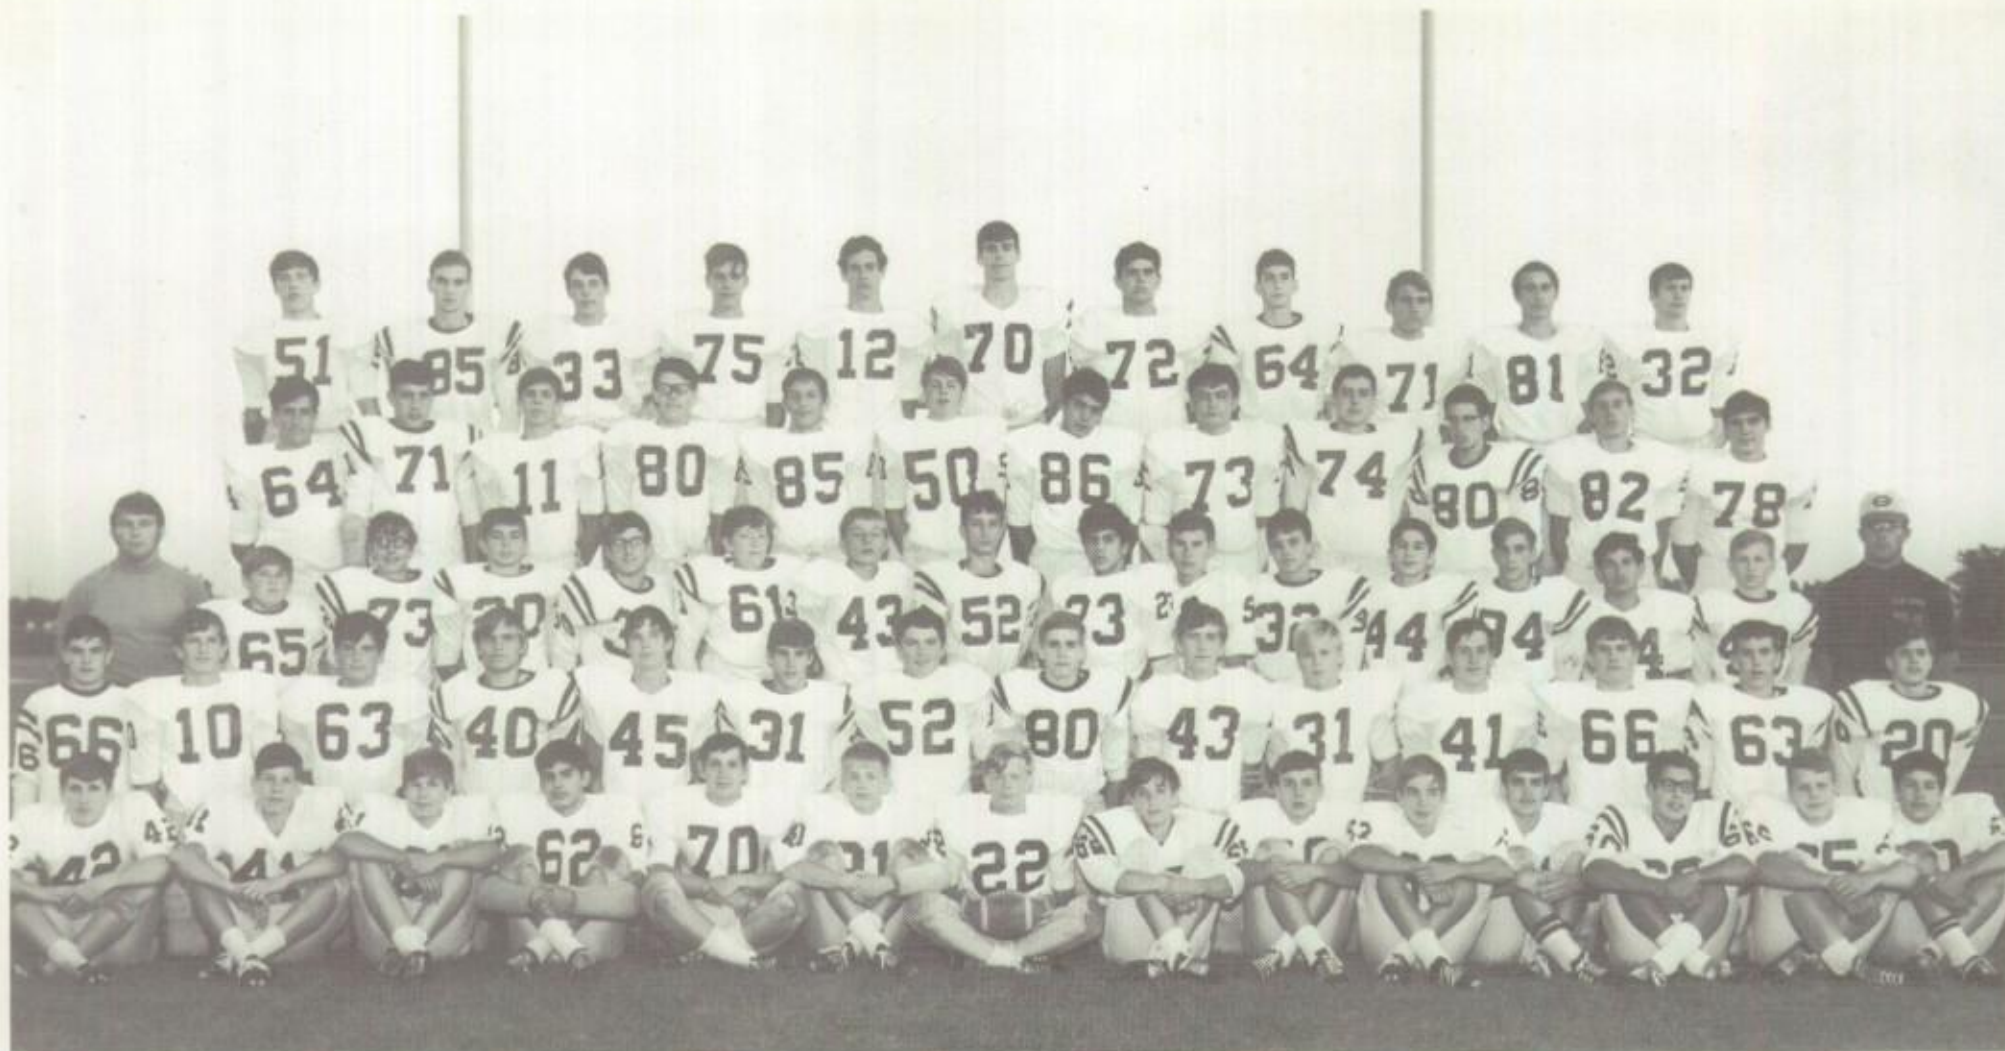

Especially important were victories over Glenbard North and Conant by scores of 29-7 and 24-14 respectively. The Homecoming game against the Forest View Falcons, however, proved to be the most exciting. The Grens were victorious by a paper-thin margin of two points, winning the game by a score of 14-12.

This season, for the first time, all of the Junior Varsity games were played at night under the lights. These night games added greatly to student enthusiasm.

Elk Grove High School, looking forward to a winning season next year, knows the promising Junior Varsity team will be a great contender for the 1971-'72 season.

In the 1970-71 football season, the Freshman A team had a successful season, winning all but two games. Although the Freshman B team was not as productive, they can be commended for the one game they did win.

Getting off to a bad start, the Sophomores were defeated in the first game. With the support and enthusiasm of the Elk Grove students, the Sophomores overlooked their first defeat and came back with a glorious winning streak, ending the 1970-71 season with a feeling of pride and accomplishment for Elk Grove High School.

Sophomore coaches Gaines and Lovelace, along with Freshman B coaches Wendler and Grams and Freshmen A coaches Otto and Peddy, led the teams forward to victory. They faithfully gave up their spare time to make Elk Grove come out on top.

The Sophomores themselves went into game ready for battle. Their faithful after-school practice paid off at the Saturday morning games.

The Sophomore's offense proved valuable in scoring numerous touchdowns. The defense held back the opposing teams in the tough 214 District. With the experience gained this year. Sophomores can look forward to a good JV year.

cross country team hosts sectional meet

Steady improvement of Elk Grove's Cross Country team continued this year as the team earned a 7-3-1 dual-meet record. A strong finish in the conference meet afforded the team a second-place finish in Conference standings.

Large meets gave the team a chance to shine as they placed second in the Riverside-Brookfield Invitational, third in the Ridgewood Invitational, and third in the Addison Trails Invitational.

The season ended with a fourth-place finish in the Elk Grove-hosted sectional meet. Maine East, Maine West, and Evanston, three of the leading contenders in the state, were the only schools to outscore E.G.

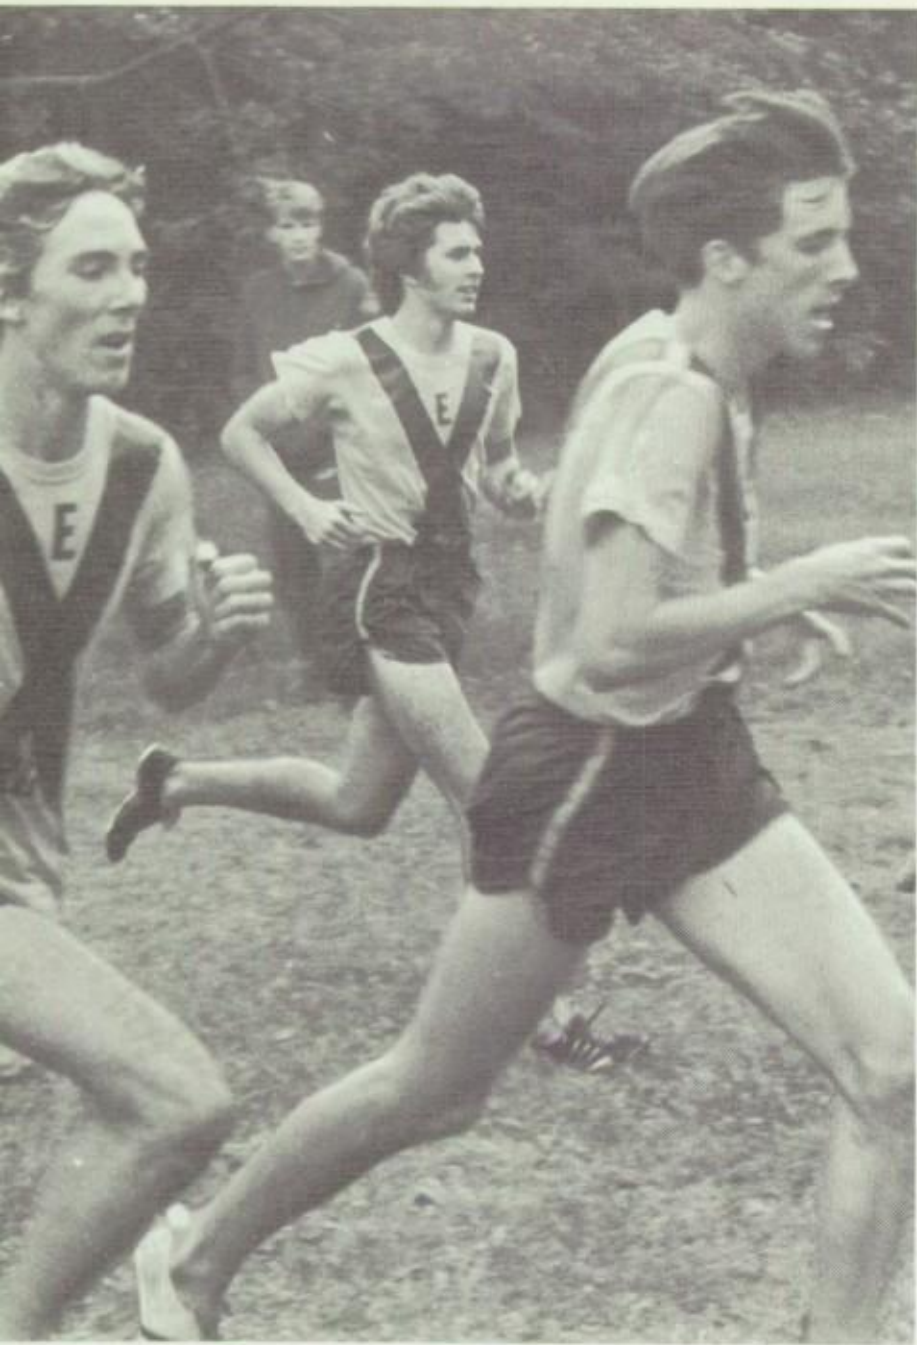

Led by senior co-captains Pat Dunning and Jim Ottinger, and the consistent running of junior Larry Cyrier and sophomores Damion Archbold and Brian Powell, the team can look back on a successful 1970 season.

grenadiers end season with victory against falcons

Elk Grove's basketball season ended with great disappointment this year. The team fought to the best of their ability, showing great effort and quickness, but they were just not able to pull through as well as they had hoped. Even with the disappointments, the team still had the courage to go out and try to beat the next team.

The varsity team consisted of mostly Juniors along with three Seniors and three Sophomores. Since the majority of the players were underclassmen, they gained a great deal of experience along with a good chance of making the varsity team again next year.

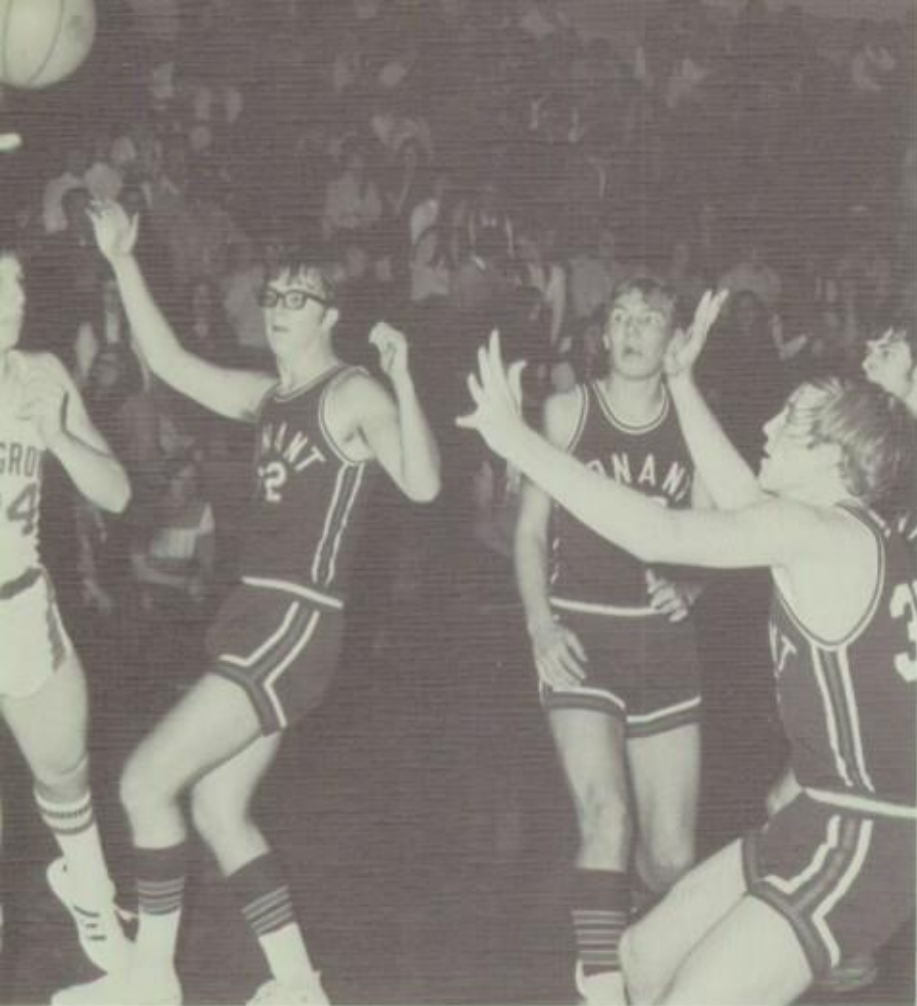

Of the Sophomore players, Bob Prince was the most valuable; of the Juniors, Keith Chuipek was quite a hustler. The most experienced player was Mark Hopkins, Senior. His height, six feet four inches, and his skill were a great advantage to the team. He was also the only returning letterman.

Unfortunately, Elk Grove's varsity basketball team won only four out of eighteen games. Two of the games won were against schools in our district, Forest View and Palatine. This win-loss record put the team in last place in Conference, EG then lost the regional game in a cliff-hanger against St. Viator's, losing by only one point.

Mr. Bill Parmentier, their new coach this year, plans to coach the team during the 1971-72 season. With his help and the many returning players, the team stands a good chance to place in conference next year.

As a team, the Junior Varsity players improved steadily throughout the season, winning four of their last games. The team placed in middle standings in the Mid-Surburban League.

During the school year of 1970-71, Elk Grove's swim team showed outstanding skill by their performance in the Conference meet held on February 19 and 20. The Frosh-Soph team placed second in the conference by obtaining three wins and two losses. Freshman Scott Bolvin was a first-place winner in two events, the 200- and 400-yard freestyle. Sophomore Bill Mayou was another first-place winner in the 100-yard freestyle. These two Tankers had also broken other records in the past.

The Varsity team placed third in the conference with three wins and two losses. Junior Dave Toler, however, won first place in the Individual Medley. He and other teammates fought hard to bring pride to Elk Grove.

varsity gymnastics sports outstanding individuals

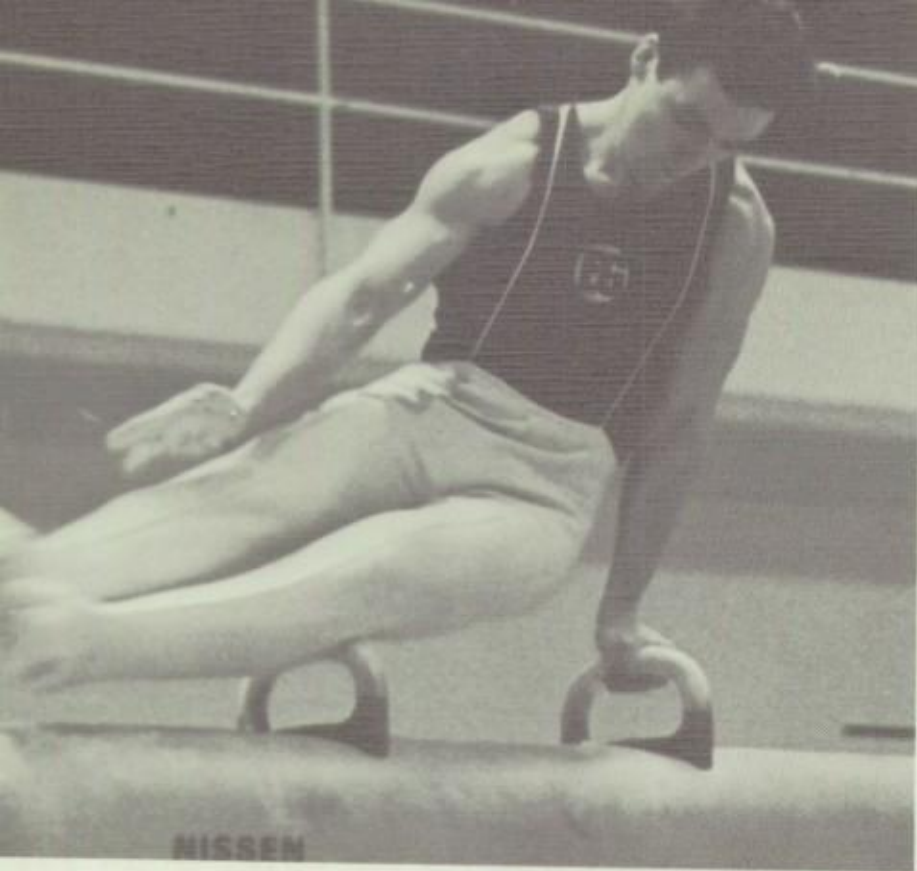

Coach Gaines and the Elk Grove student body had reason to be proud of the 1970-71 Gymnastics team. The team put together its skill and team effort to be rewarded with a second place in Conference and a first place in Districts. The Varsity gymnasts finished with a 10 and 3 record, and the Frosh-Sophs with a record of 12 and 1.

In the sectional meet, EG placed third. Ringman Jack Malmédahl placed first and Landy Fernandez in fourth. Landy also placed eighth and Charley Hadley ninth on the P-bars. Neal Dorsey took first on tramp, while Al Mitsos took fifth. Andy Bowlds took sixth on side horse and Fernandez took third in all-around.

The main reason for this year's success was the members on the team. Landy Fernandez was Elk Grove's all-around man, which meant he competed in every event excluding the trampoline. Jack Malmédahl was recognized by the college athletic coaches as "the best ring man in the country" on the high-school level and was undefeated in the dual meets. Charlie Hadley, Dan Stenoien, and Bill Watts were outstanding on the parallel bars. Al Mitsos, with only one defeat, and Neal Dorsey were regulars on the trampoline. In free exercise, Dukie Brennan, Steve Rohn, and Mark Damore were top performers. Mark Damore and Bill Watts performed to the best of their ability on the high bar. Finally, on the side horse, Andy Bowlds, Bob Siemianowski and Mark Damore were the top men.

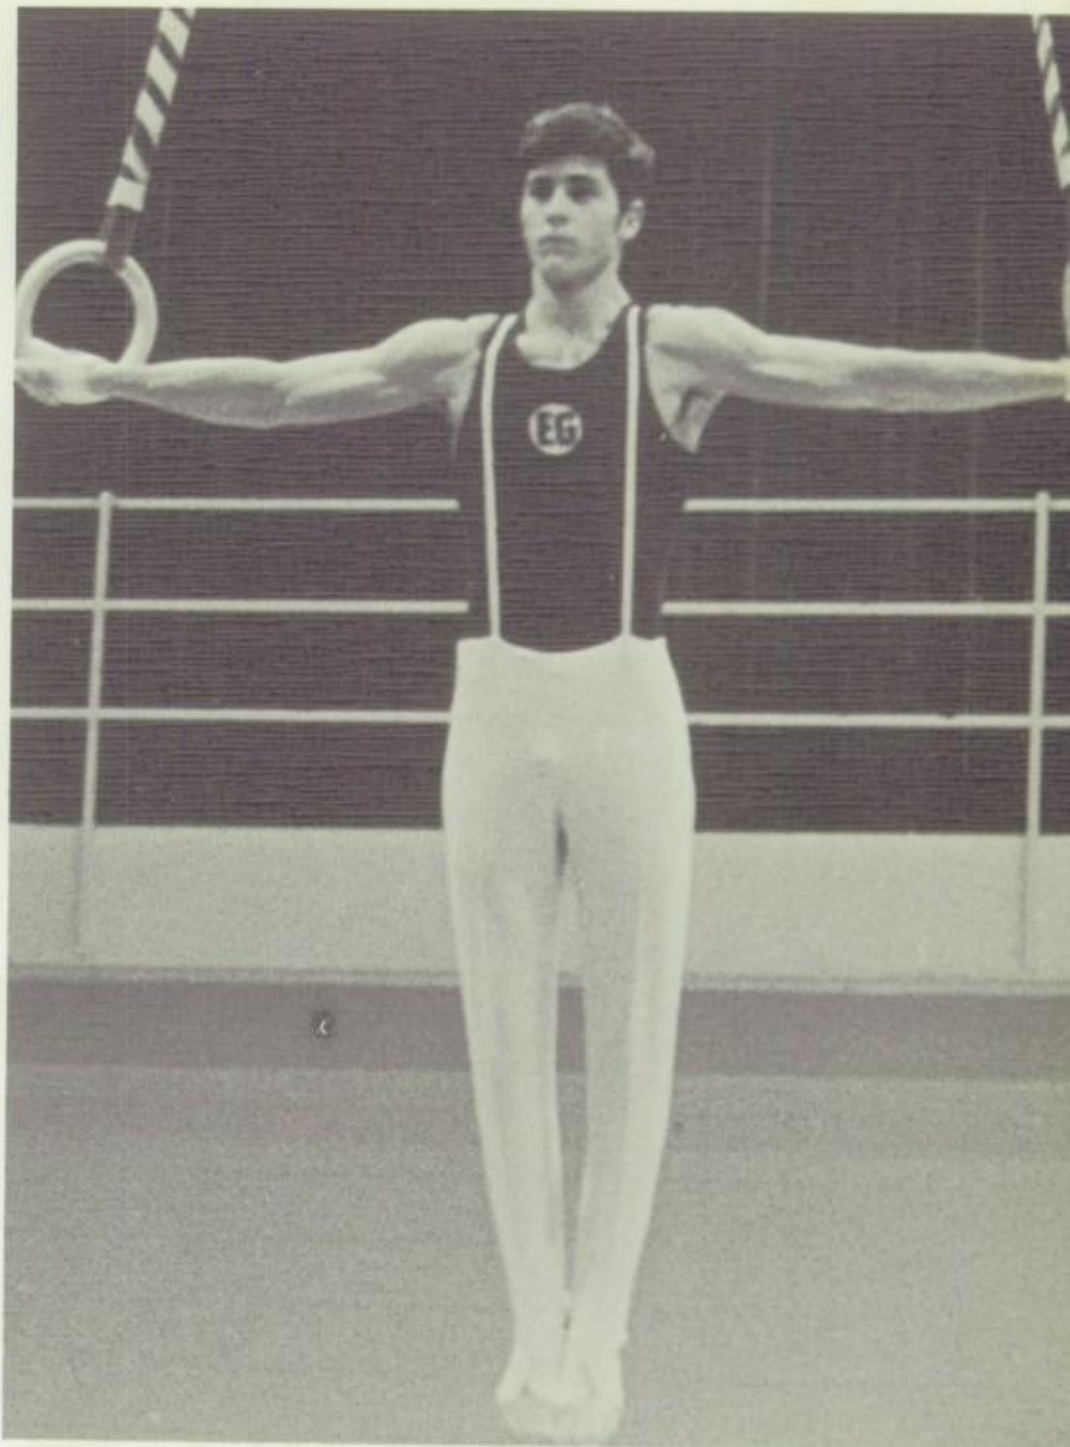

Duke Brennan, Senior, performs his floor exercise routine.

Marc Damore, Junior, exhibits correct form in double leg circles.

another first—eg matman qualifies for state

The quality of wrestling at Elk Grove vastly improved during the season, although the dual meet record was only 6-2. The strength of the varsity team was fine performances in the middle weight class. Lower weights were basically filled with inexperienced Freshmen and Sophomores.

Many individuals did an outstanding job during the season. Bob Gleif and Dennis Byrne received fourth places at the Conference meet while David Byrne received third, and Ken Siebold and Bob Webb got second place. The district meet was also a time for Elk Grove victory on the individual level. Ken Siebold and David Byrne took third place, Bob Webb and Bob Gleif received second, and Paul Morris claimed first-place honors.

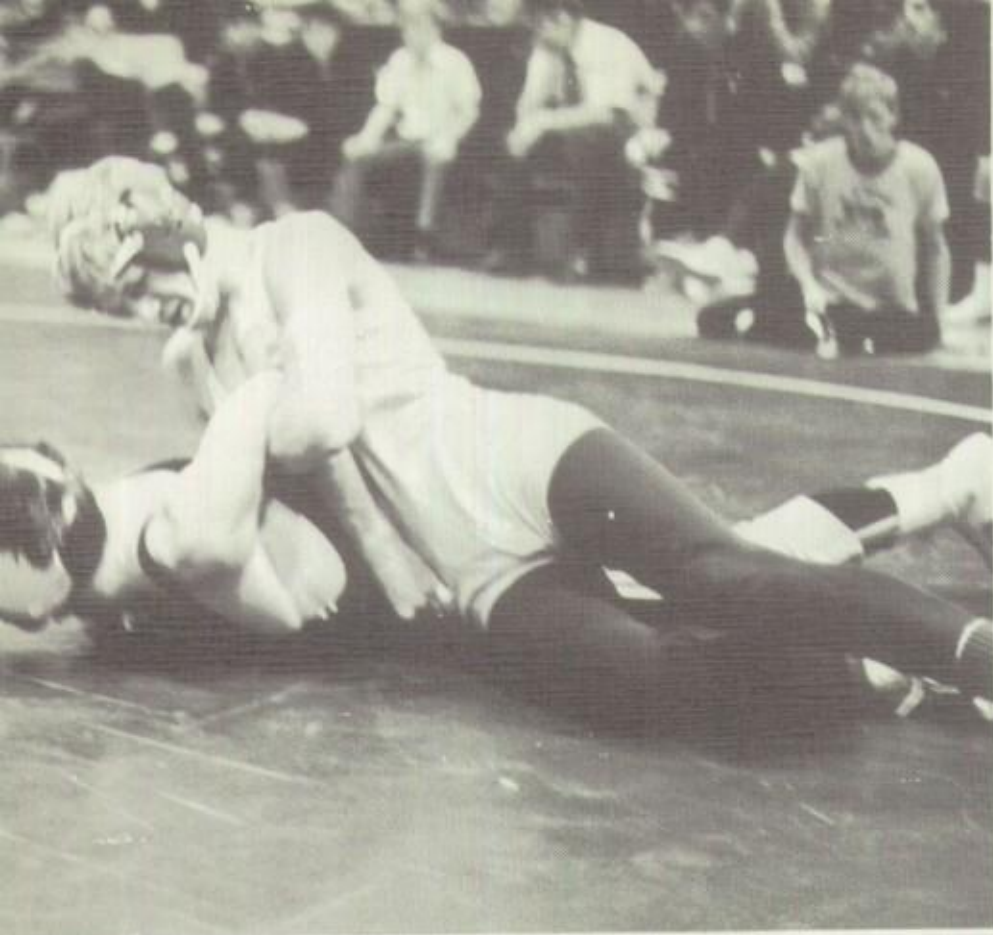

Paul Morris was the first matman from EG to go to state after receiving second at Sectionals. At State, Paul wrestled to a third place.

Senior Paul Morris is the first Elk Grove wrestler to qualify for the state finals, in which he is the third-place winner.

cheerleaders promote spirit with a new squad

"We are best around, hey!" A new voice was heard at Elk Grove this year from the new freshman cheerleading squad. In previous years only three squads existed: the Varsity, the Junior Varsity, and the Frosh-Soph squads. This year, though, the Frosh-Soph squad split into two separate groups. Varsity squad then bought new uniforms.

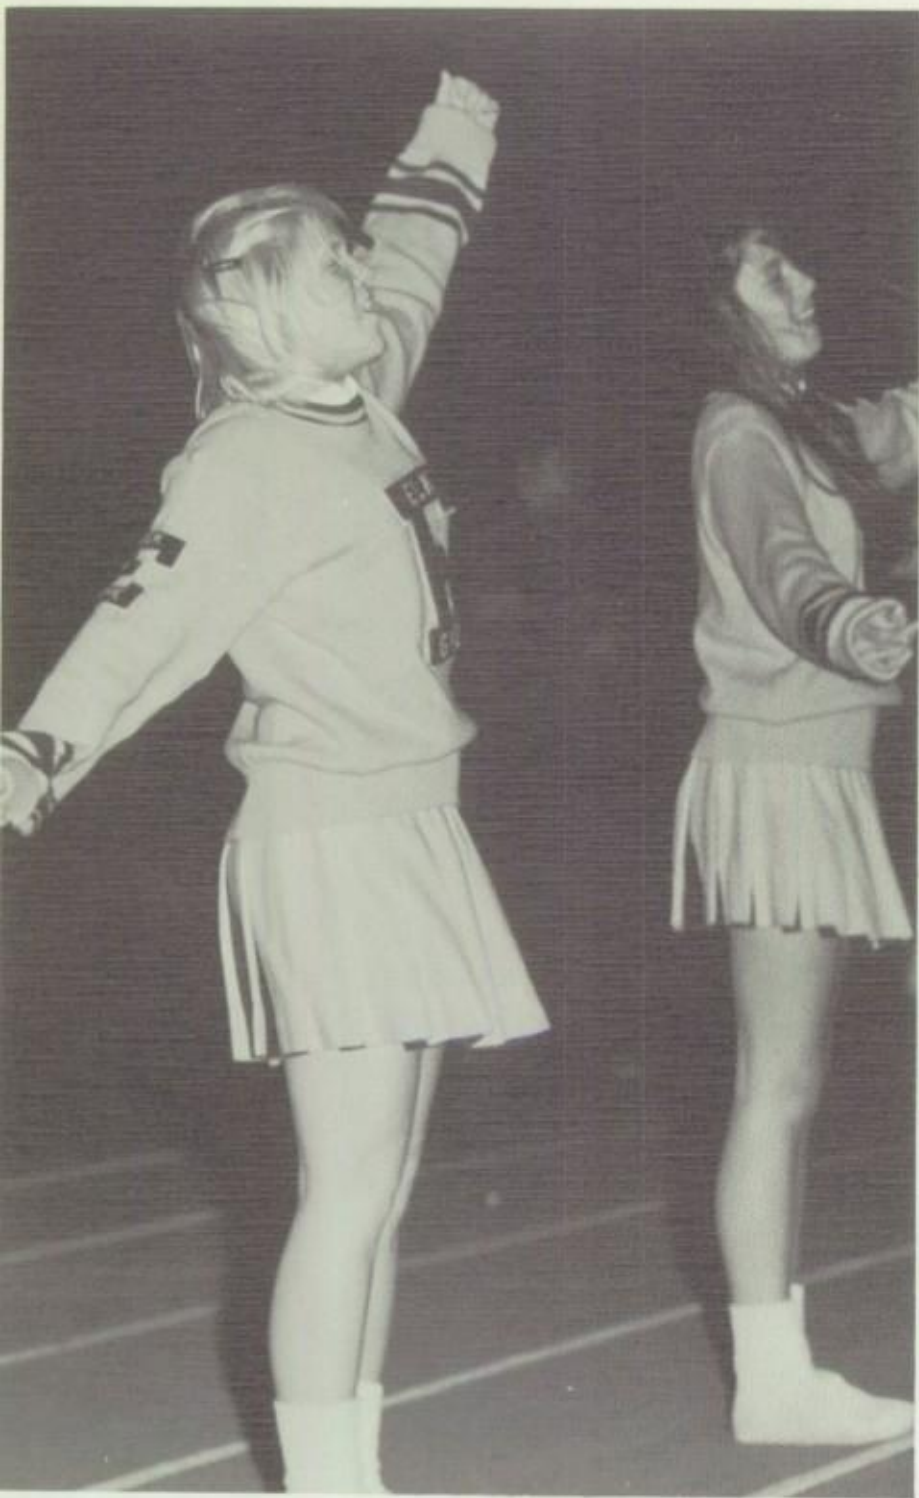

The cheerleader's main activity was arousing crowd enthusiasm at all football and basketball games. Along with cheering, they organized and presented pep assemblies to encourage the various teams on to victory. The Spirit Can, a main attraction at the assemblies, also started much class rivalry.

Homecoming week found the cheerleaders hard at work, decorating the gymnasium for the Coronation Assembly.

flashers and wrestlettes assist in home meets

Both the gymnastics and wrestling teams were faithfully supported this year by flashers and wrestlettes.

Flashers organized prior to the gymnastics season. All girls who tried out were required to write a paper, which papers were then judged. The flashers helped the judges keep score at all home gymnastics meets. They also publicized all of the upcoming meets.

Wrestlettes tried out in the fall. The girls had to learn the basic timing and scoring techniques that are used in wrestling, besides learning two wrestling cheers. Twenty-three wrestlettes were chosen. These girls helped time and score at home meets and made posters.

girls take second in the tennis team conference

This year the tennis courts were constantly filled with the sounds of fifteen girls practicing hard for upcoming meets. Thanks to their long practices, tennis team captured second place in the conference tournament this year. Mrs. Fox, a new member of the faculty, coached the team on to this achievement.

Several other groups of hard-working girls, Leaders II, and III, could be found in the gymnasium. The Leaders I class trained for next year's duties, while Leaders II and III were already on the job. They aided the various team teachers by taking attendance and leading exercises. Several of the girls who participated the most and showed the most progress in the program spent a weekend camp at Birchwood Resort in Lodi, Wisconsin.

learning can happen anywhere at any time

Freshman Larry Sparks, not yet adapted to learning, is distracted from his studies when he sees a camera.

Elk Grove High School proved this year that learning can happen anywhere at any time. Its students participated in a curriculum adapted to the principles of a free society.

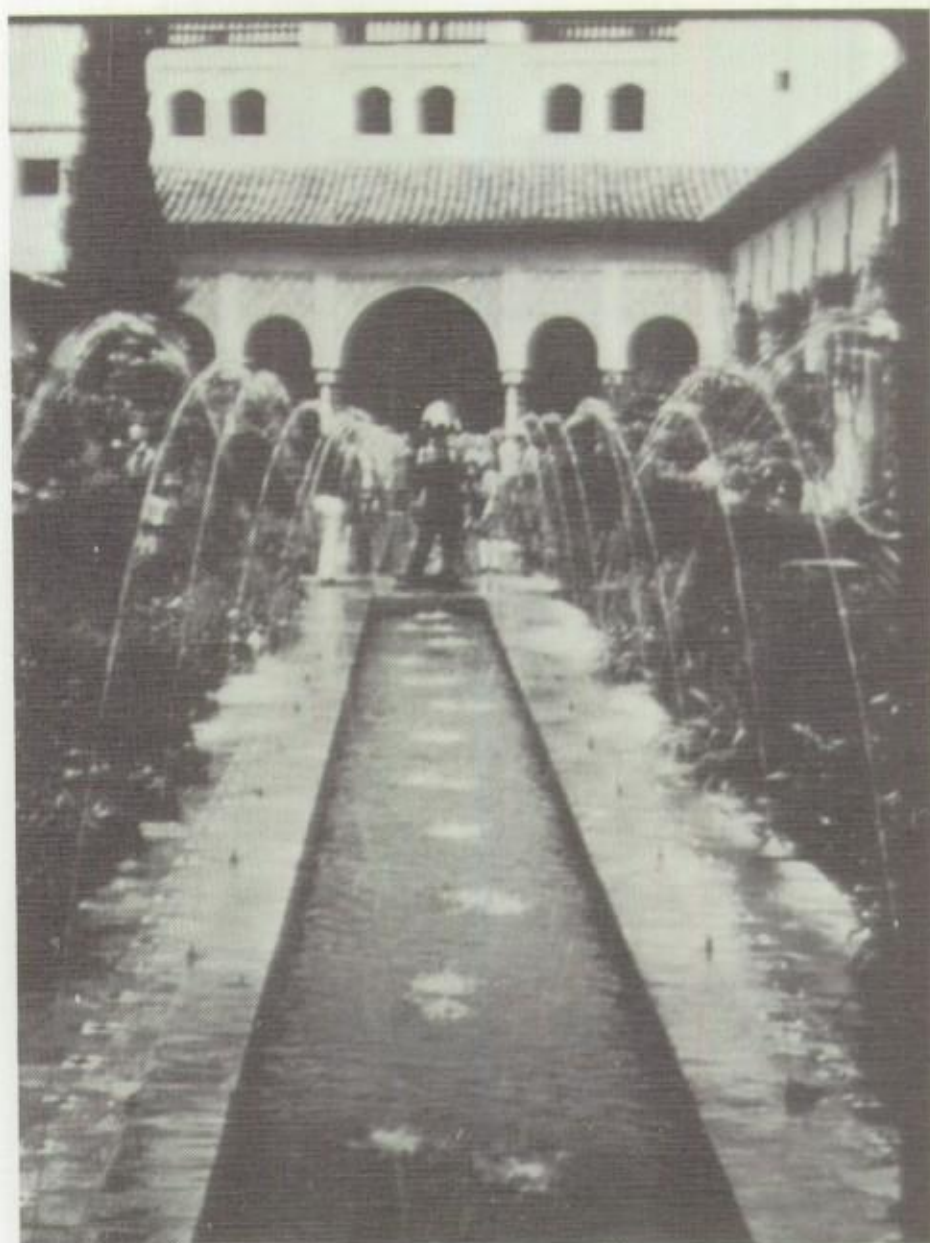

The school extended its independent study program to let students pursue their interests beyond the regular classes. Students also enjoyed creating their own courses in a special seminar program. For the first time, only upperclassmen received S.I.S. privileges. Qualified juniors and seniors benefited from the restricted S.I.S. program while sophomores and freshmen remained in class.

New curricula emphasized the importance of being an individual who is completely aware of the life around him. Awareness of oneself, the community, and the world is the key to understanding. New courses gave each student the opportunity to observe life and evaluate it personally.

The administration no longer confined education to a classroom, as students realized in each academic department. Classes took on the dimensions of resource centers, field trips, and independent projects. The free high-school atmosphere motivated students to reach out for their own identities and become outstanding individuals.

The social science department experimented with a new concept of learning. To improve relevancy to what is happening in and around school, Juniors taking American History courses were given their choice of which parts of history they would like to study.

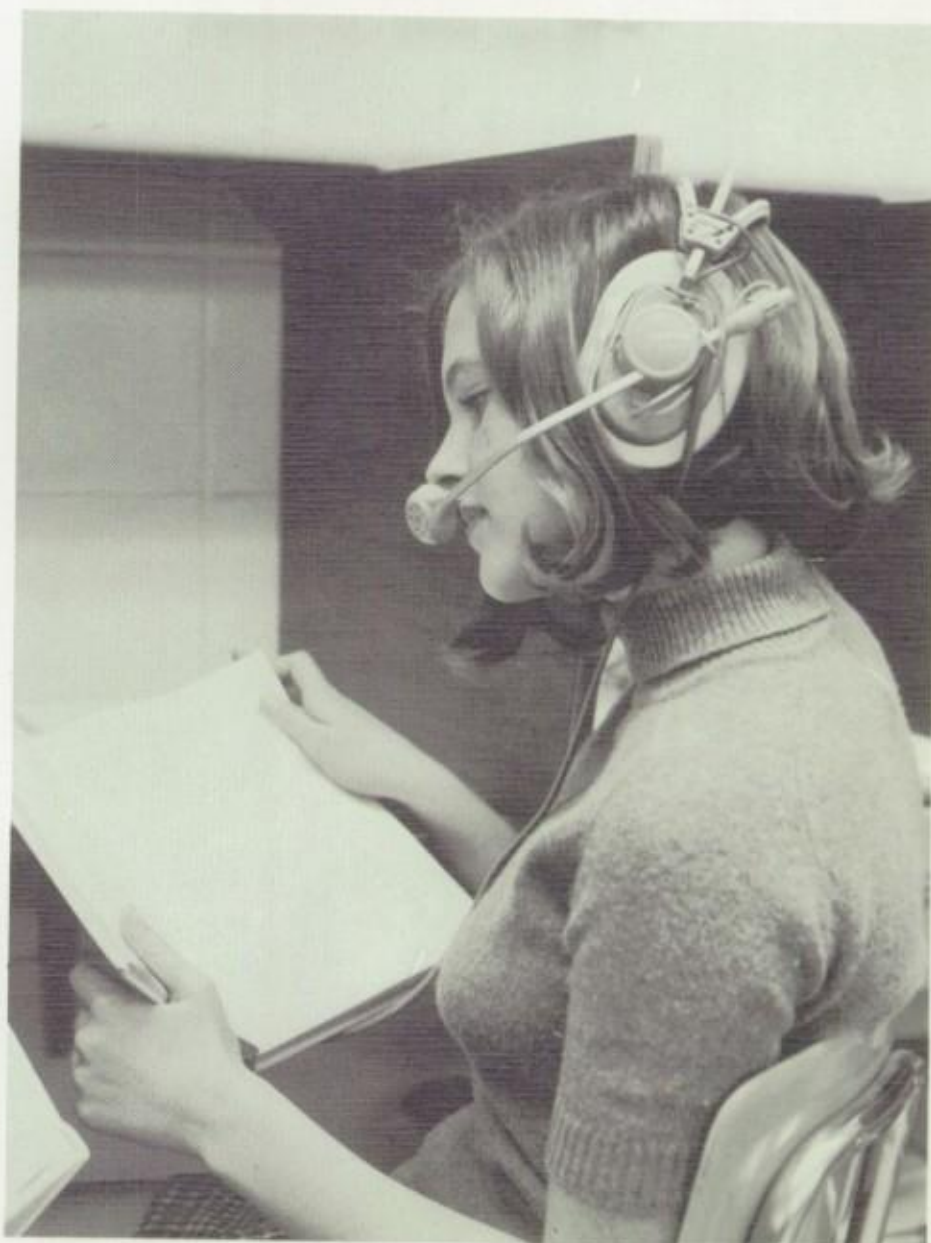

Among some of the newer courses begun this year was Afro-American History. Taught jointly by Miss Dorothy Lewis and Mr. Bill Norwood, this one-semester study was introduced to further the students' knowledge of the Negro American's past.

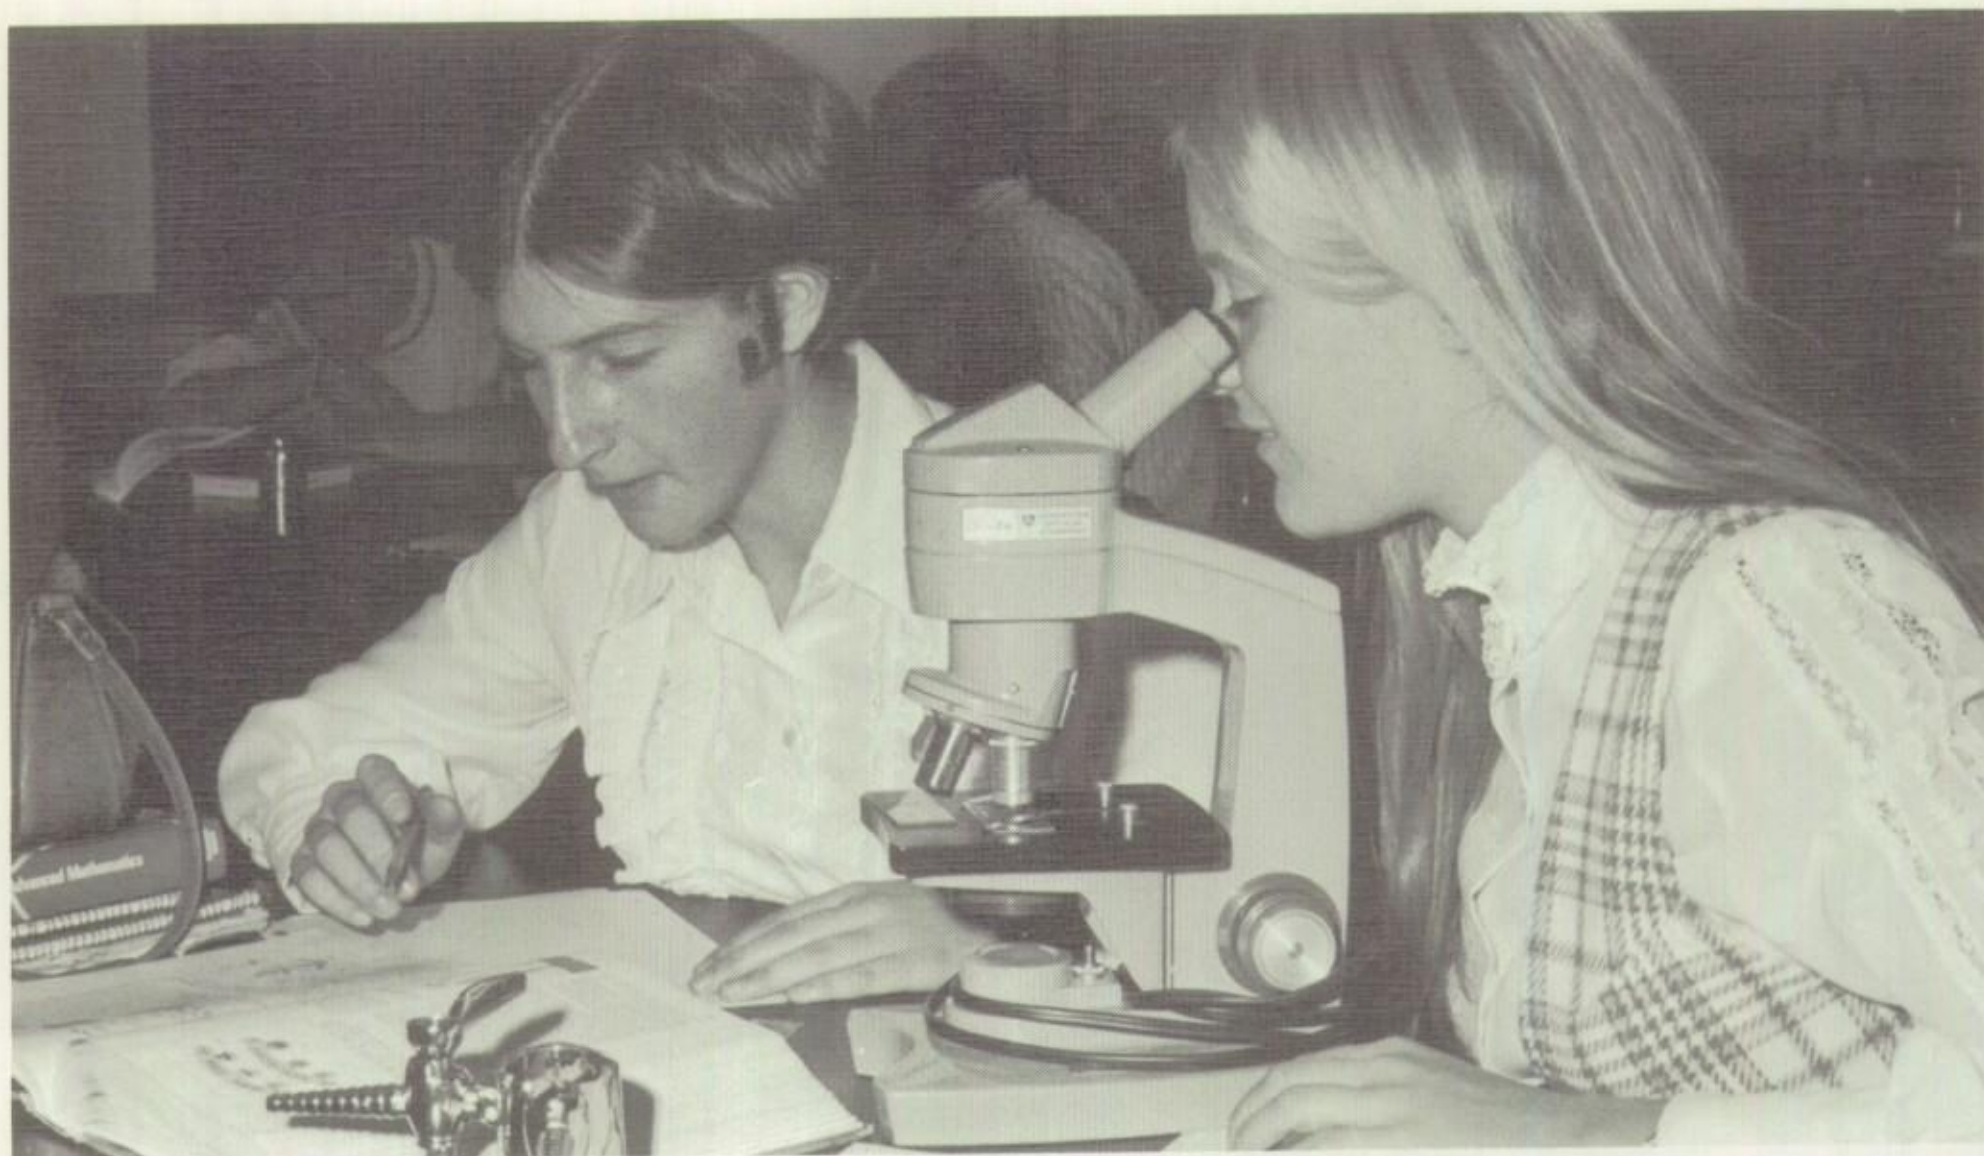

Mr. Haskell, principal, and Mrs. Hurley, librarian, were introduced as instructors this year. In their spare time they jointly taught U.S. history.

Sociology classes and social psychology classes continued to probe the mind of man, conducting experiments to try and solve the answer of why man acts as he does. Students might have seen other students walking through the halls holding on to each other. This experience was to build man's trust in his fellow man.

The main objective of the Social Science Department this year was to bring the student closer to other students. Thus, students made their own choices of what they wanted to study and when. In all, students had freedom concerning how much they wanted to learn.

Mr. Phillip Pardun, math teacher, explains various mathematical problems to Pat Massey, Senior, during the study module.

The Science Department added two new one-semester courses in 1970-71: Space Science and Earth Science. Space Science studied the earth as a planet, the moon, the solar system, our sun, other stars, galaxies, the universe, space exploration, meteorology, and oceanography. Earth Science studied physical geology and historical geology, using movies and slides to supplement the study.

Science seminar consisted of five students, Dave Abernathy, Steve Johnson, Bryon Mayyou, Mike McEvoy, and Jeff Simmons. These students worked on individual projects to help them delve deeply into many different areas of science, such as astronomy, physics, computer programming, and organic chemistry. They visited places like Motorola radio and the Illinois Institute of Technology to increase their knowledge.

Computer programming went into its third year at Elk Grove High School. This course was valuable to students interested in the world of computers. At Elk Grove, an IBM 160 computer was available to help students learn its operation and enable them to understand at least one computer language. Through this knowledge these students were able to find solutions to various math problems which were teacher-originated and student-computer solved.

practical experience is learning

A great advancement in vocational preparation could be seen in the Practical Arts Division. Elk Grove High School expanded its educational program to allow students to pursue personal career interests. The Division placed a strong emphasis on practical experience in each vocation.

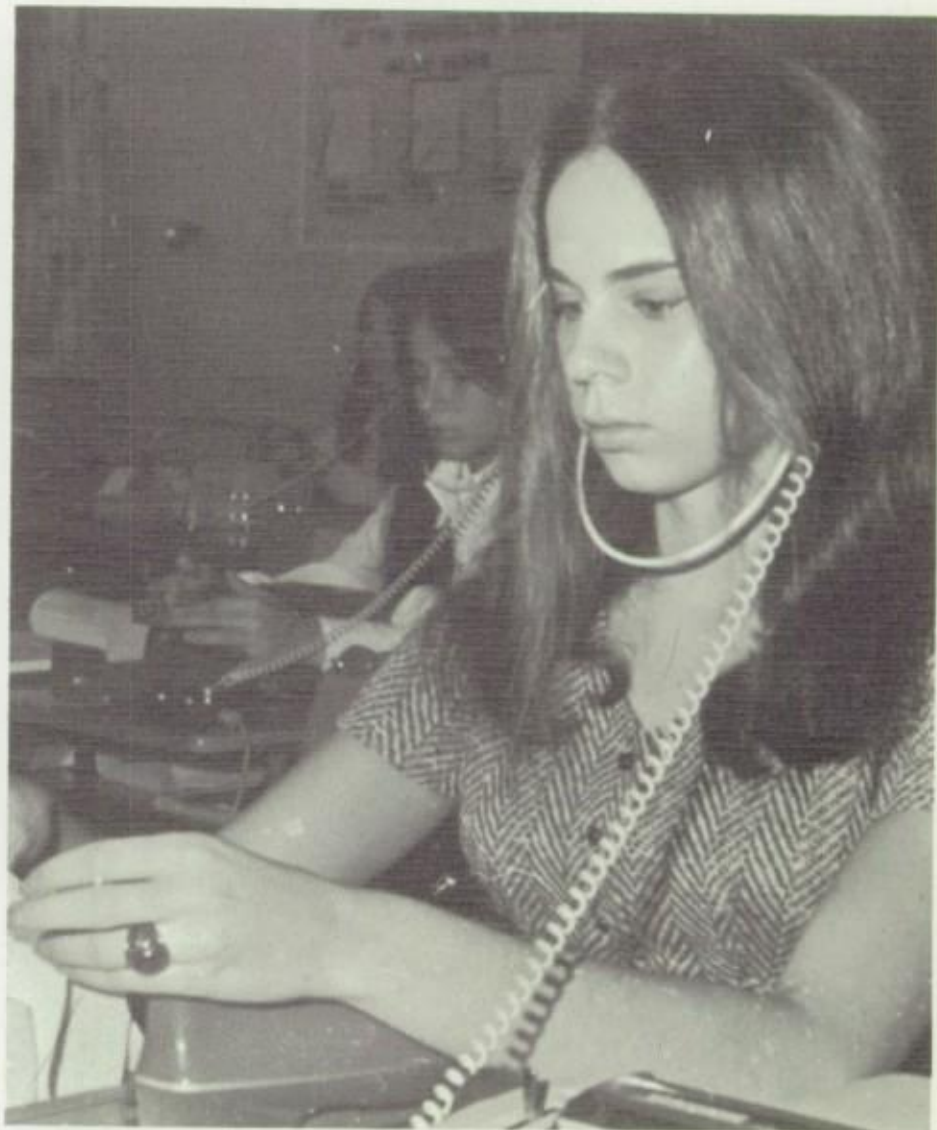

Business education offered a variety of interesting and beneficial courses. The business curriculum included new courses such as touch-shorthand, data processing, and business English. The Department also revised traditional classes. One class was advanced accounting, which was offered as an independent study program for the first time this year.

Home Economics prepared students for careers in home decoration, fashion designing, and food management. The expanded H.E.R.O. program proved that homemaking is not restricted to a kitchen; rather, it is a meaningful occupation.

Industrial Arts no longer means a hammer and a nail. Elk Grove students constructed computers and intercoms as independent projects. The Industrial Arts teachers became guides rather than heads of the classes.

The Practical Arts Division offered a variety of vocational opportunities for the students. The Division proved that experiencing was learning.

english department concentrates on communication

John Ford and Jody Holister produce a radio program.

Elk Grove High School offered a new curriculum in the English department during 1970-71. Many new courses, such as Illinois literature, world literature, and film studies, have added a new dimension to the learning of the students. All the English courses were based on phases, no longer on ability levels. Students selected from phases one through five, with the more difficult course at the higher phase.

Juniors and seniors were free to choose any subject and phase that interested them, including business English. Freshmen and sophomores were placed in semester programs that fit their needs.

Again eg magazine was sponsored by the Humanities Division. Students and faculty contributed poetry, short stories, essays, art, and photographs. A committee made up of students and a few selected teachers then judged the material.

Every month the Division presented a special movie for the students' entertainment. Among the widely different movies shown were Oedipus Rex and King Kong.

The Humanities Division also sponsored several contests. The first was the poster contest, of which Al Cerny was the winner. Follow-ups were the photography contest, poetry contest, short stories contest, and reading speed and comprehension contest. Where possible, the winning entry was published in eg.

art and music grasp at quality in productions

Students in the Music and Art Departments developed their talent and creativity. The Departments outlined basic principles of style and let each student demonstrate his individual traits.

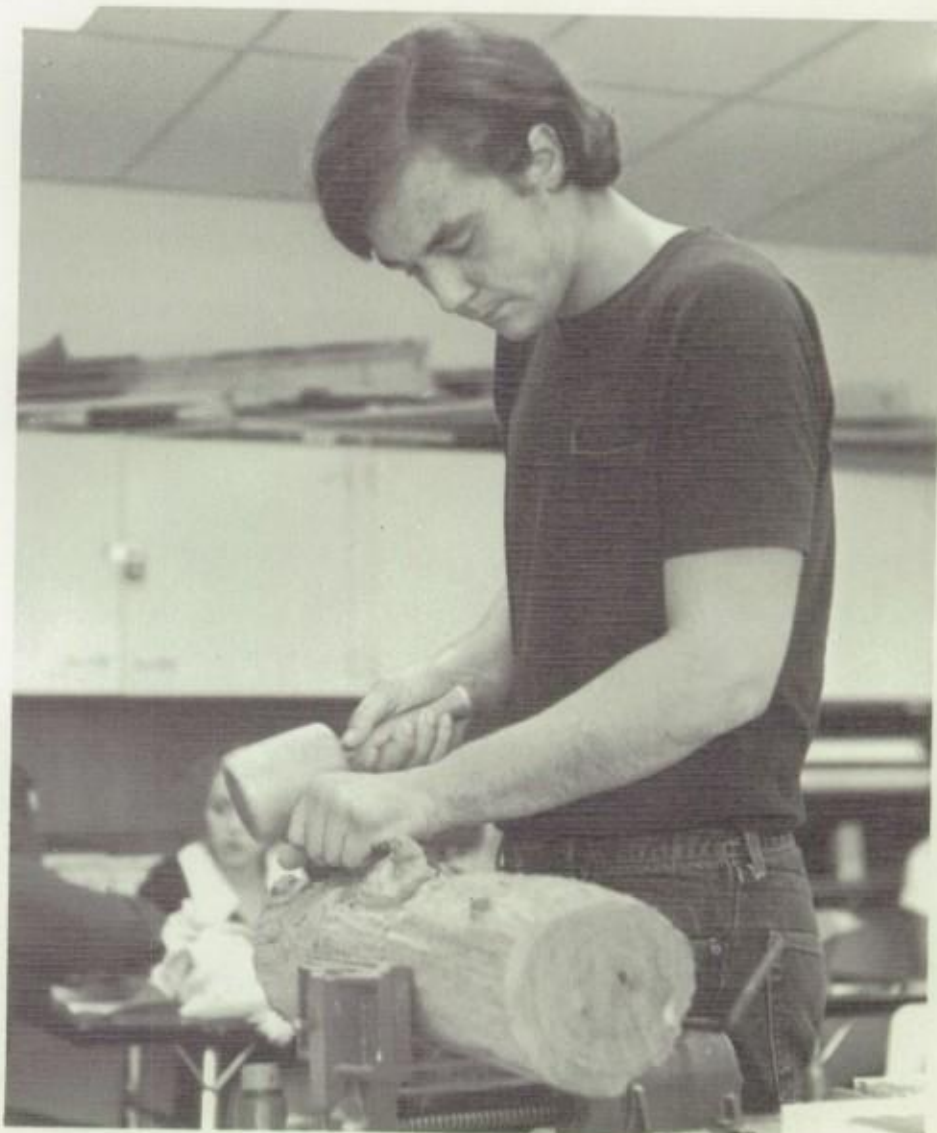

The Instrumental Music Department strove for quality and perfection in many musical presentations. The high-stepping marching band appeared for its second year at the Chicago Bears game. This was the last year they will perform at a Bears game, however, because national television will no longer televise high school bands. Other instrumental groups also performed with the distinction of quality. The concert and symphony bands presented many enjoyable assemblies while the Jazz Band continued its long and outstanding record of first-class performances.

Choral groups worked hard to organize their programs. Choral Capers highlighted the talent of many students involved in the Music Department. The Choral Department also competed in many state-wide contests and brought home numerous honors to Elk Grove.

Art students created a number of outstanding projects. The Department displayed quality etchings, sculpture, and paintings.

Physical Education took on new dimensions as the traditional curriculum expanded. New courses and new teachers comprised the P.E. program.

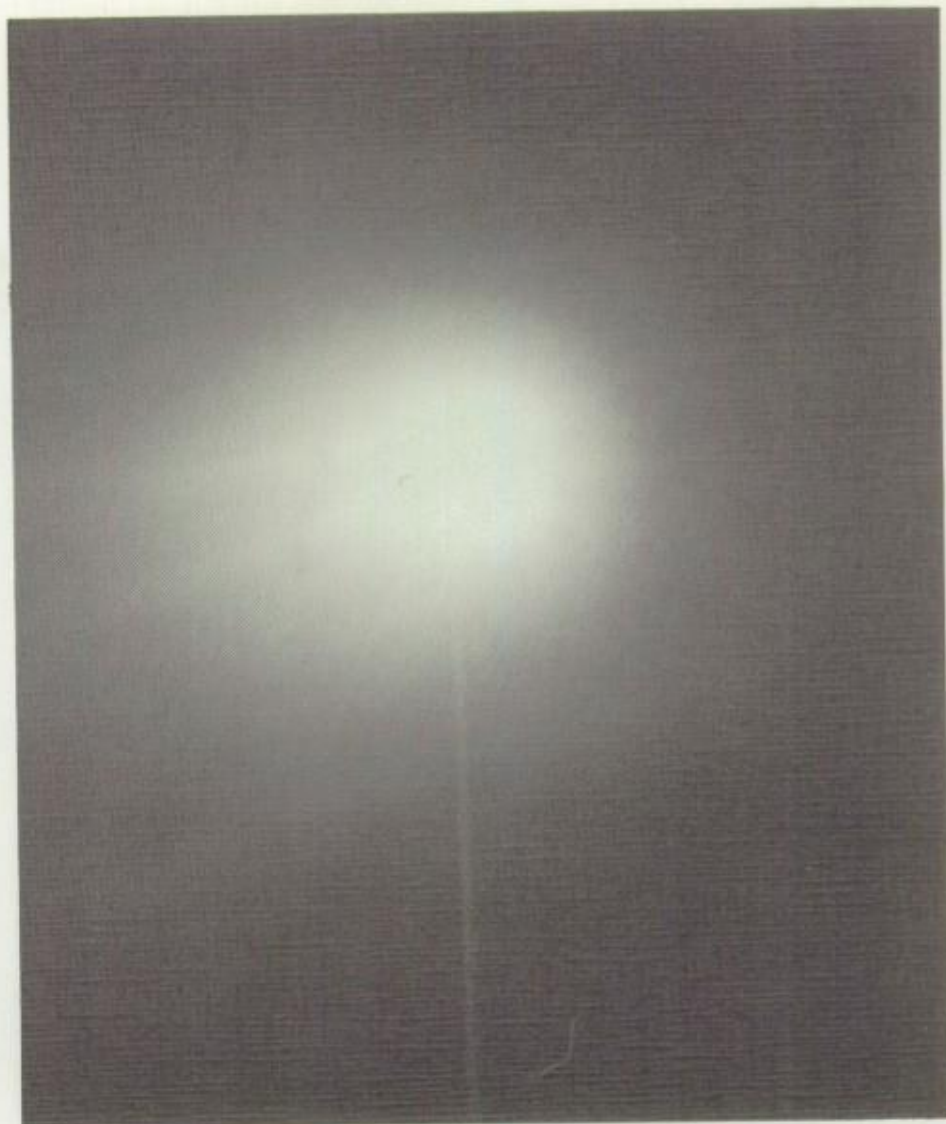

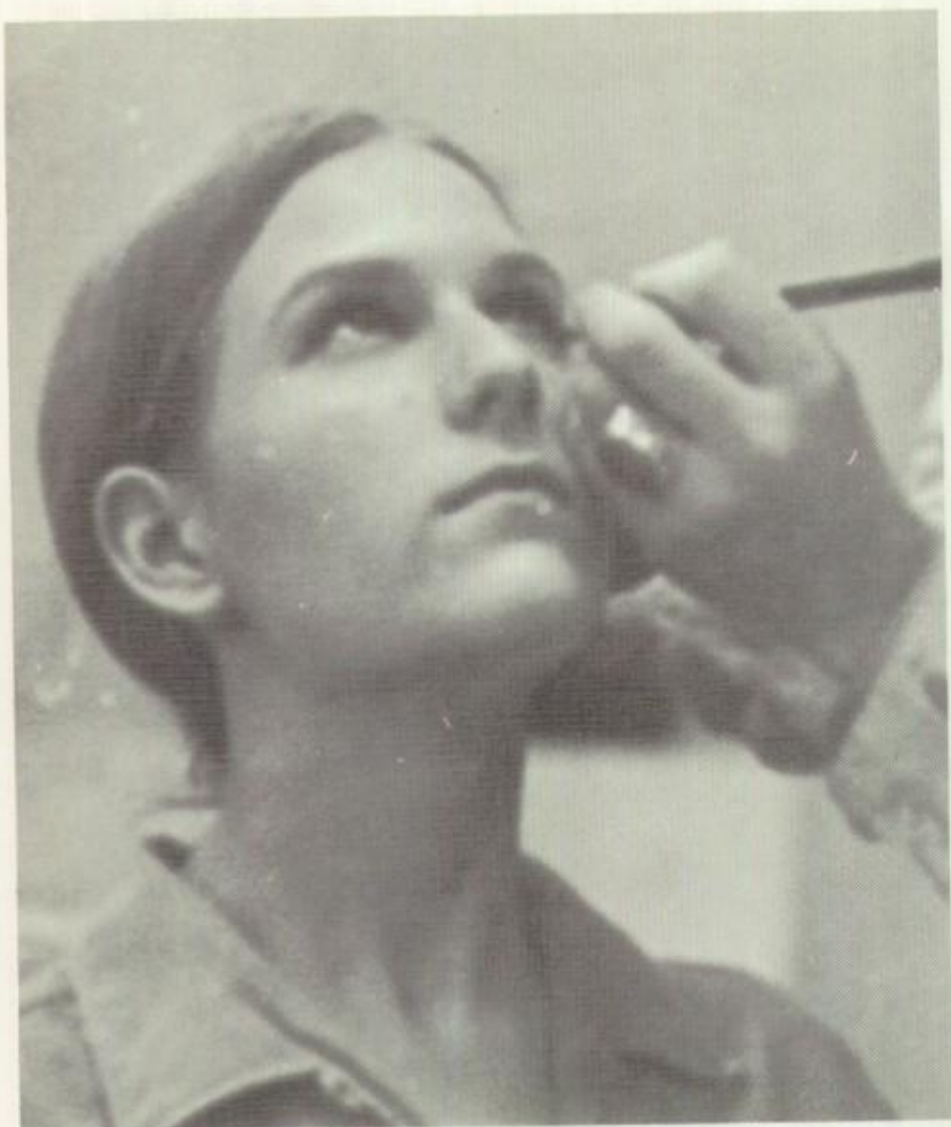

The Girls' Department offered various opportunities for those girls interested in athletics. Many students enthusiastically participated in team sport competition and intramural activities. The favored activities were girls' tennis team, gymnastics, and G.R.A.

The Boys' Department became a supplement to the sports program. Weight lifting and conditioning classes kept each participant in condition during a sports season.

Juniors participated in the Driver's Ed program in the fall of 1970. This was the first year that the driving program was offered at Elk Grove during the first semester. This change in schedule delighted many Juniors, but frustrated a number of Seniors who were restricted from the school parking lot.

The Leaders' program continued to demonstrate true leadership in the P.E. Department. Miss Mathews sponsored various activities in and out of class for the girls in her program. Some activities were a special campout, a slumber party, and a picnic.

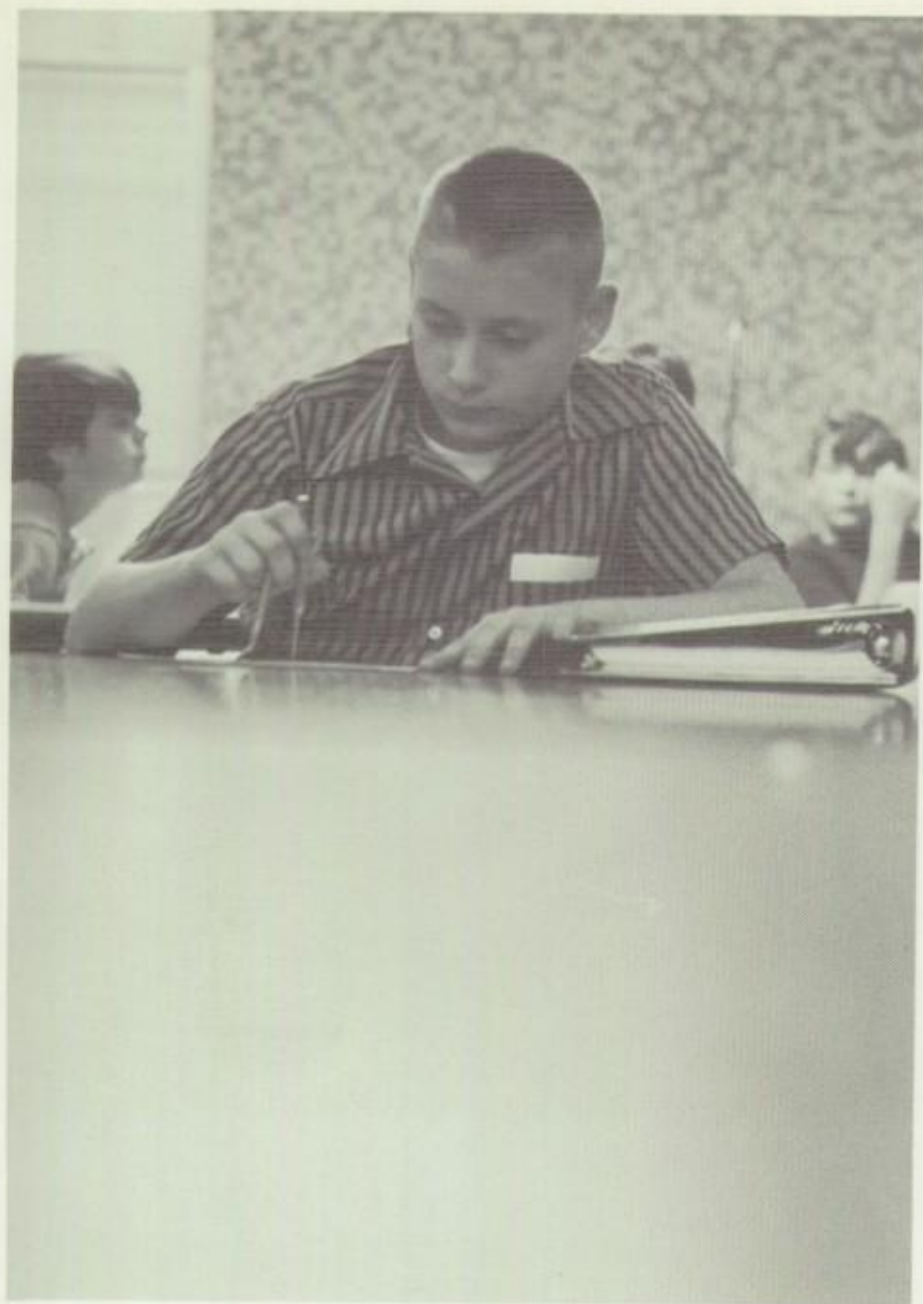

Each student became aware of fitness and coordination in the unique P.E. curriculum.

Acknowledgments

The Montage Staff is grateful to the following people and companies whose assistance and interest helped the book become complete: Root Studios, in particular Mr. and Mrs. Dompke, whose cooperation in scheduling and delivering pictures enabled us to meet our deadlines; Capri Studios for the gymnastics pictures on pages 182-184; Paddock Publications for the baseball pictures on page 191; Audio-Visual Department, in particular Mr. Oswald, Ron Antor, and James Moy, for many of the candid pictures that appear throughout this book; Mr. David for the V-Show pictures on pages 120-121; Walsworth Publishing Company, especially Mr. Robert Moorhead, our sales representative, whose encouragement and ideas kept us going, and Mr. Joe Cupp, whose letters and phone calls helped straighten out problems between Montage and Walsworth; The administration and faculty members for their cooperation in allowing the scheduling of pictures and letting staff members out of classes to meet deadlines; Mrs. Curtis, for dittoing many of our notes to the faculty; Gail Greaves, for the cover design, and most of all, to Mrs. LaVone Holt, for putting up with our giggling, nagging us to meet deadlines, and for letting the staff do the work while she advised.

Well I always have been a little nervous and worried I can pay but I'm sorry to say when it be in your German III class (Good out with H.P. maybe I'll be in cattle of your class our Frank

↑ Thanks Mary:
Well we made it through another year at E.O.H.S.
I think, we'll be the 72 seniors next year.
I can't believe we're almost there. Next year this we will be saying "I can't believe our song is done soon" and then it will be all over. Mary - its another good year - first of all the summer
I swimming + all, then school started then Christmas, then Simon and Garfunkel finally getting our long-overdue justice. #1 all around.
I think in 5 short years we'll be off to N.Y.
to be what-nots. Shooey!!
I listen - I'd love to sing with you + Mike - I want to hear you two play together. I can't help thinking back when Mike + Jim were just mini-people -
I remember is playing darts in your garage.
How long ago was that...??
One of these summers, you + I have to go swimming and up in Canada - were "all going to look for America". I can't wait until next year when we to see things from the top. I can't figure out what's bugging your 2 unmentionable ex-friends guess they think too highly of themselves. We'll have get together and laugh for a while soon. When are you + family leaving for Wisconsin? Have fun.
Wonder what we'll be like 2 years from now, when they let us out on the world. Well, I'll have wait + see. Thanks for another great year and friendship that deepens every year. Say hi to all.
Feb. 7 - 1972

Mary
Nice having you
for a junior leader.
Had alot of fun in gym
Debbie "Good Luck"
Cochran.

Mary,
It's been fun having you in German! with all of the sophmores! we really need ed more juniors in our class but we had fun anyway. Have fun this summer & take care

Love
L. Troy

See, maybe someday
we can get ready for it our guitars, that is 2 ever get one - we've had 2 years of German together, maybe next year we'll be there years of Rang York, and when you're in New York, and I + G are there, will go and meet them, O.K.? Carol

Mary,
It's really been fun in leaders. Remember the campout and our little journey up to the mountain, and the newbies we were going to visit? It was all great fun. Good luck next year and after it's been fun knowing you.

Donna

Mary, S.
what could say! Remember leader's was great. Climbing the mt.
to campout, fire drill and to see Chinese fire drill with fire cracker and boating with a baby boat. I wish you to keep every thing
lots of luck in life
Get 'er up
Keep it
P.S. Get a great smile!

Mary, I got to I'm glad I got to know you some in German this year. I hope
I see you next year.
Have fun this summer

Dear Mary ~
It's been a riot having you in history 2nd semester. I don't we could have had a better class.
Have a good time
in the future years.
Love,
Lissa

Dear Mary ~ Our schedules were really rotten this year. You know, I haven't had a class with you since freshman year. We'll have to make up for it this summer. Someday I'll surprise you and drop in (maybe I'll even bring Carol + Pat with me) - boy could we have fun! Keep practicing - Someday we'll be famous. Love ~ Sandy

May,
I would have never made it through history without you
this semester, Thanks,
Have a fantastic
senior year and loads of fun this summer!
Good luck always!

Many dyspand!
Well, we didn't have any classes together this year, except for your the same hour. Well, maybe we'll have sociology next year together. I hope so! We you are the answer, and I'll remember you whenever we think of women + gardens.
Love, Ruth Leroy

Many have never had a better
time before with a good and pleasant morning.

(May)
 Why can I?
 at it probably were getting out of Mr
 Jennings class.
 I don't believe it.
 I suppose we would all have no need in - Jan. (but not Dec
 it matter) By June 11, you should get your made for the summer like Good luck
